VII. Continuing Professional Education

14. Report on Continuing Professional Education

II. Consider a request from the following licensees to reactivate their “null and void” license.

- A. Lee Ann Cruley, AC 14582 – Ms. Cruley is requesting that her license be placed on “inactive” status. Ms. Cruley’s license reverted to “delinquent inactive” status on January 1, 1998 and “null and void” on January 1, 2001. Staff recommends denying Ms. Cruley’s request to place her “null and void” license on “inactive” status. However, staff recommends extending the “delinquent” status of Ms. Cruley’s license for six month in order for her to reactivate by completing the regular reactivation requirements under the under the unusual hardship provisions. Pg. 7
- B. Adam E. Margolis, AC 22955 – Mr. Margolis is requesting to reactivate his “null and void” license. He states he learned recently that we had an incorrect mailing address for him; therefore, he did not receive his renewal information. Mr. Magolis’ license reverted to “delinquent” status on January 1, 2004 and “null and void” on January 1, 2006. Staff recommends extending the “delinquent” status of Mr. Magolis’ license for six months in order for him to reactivate by completing the regular reactivation requirements under the unusual hardship provisions. Pg. 8
- C. Patricia A. McKay, AC 8258 – Ms. McKay is requesting reinstatement of her license under the provisions of Florida Statute 473.313 (4). She states over 23 years she has maintained her Florida license in good standing, attending continuing education requirements. She states she has been a financial officer with publicly traded companies but is considering returning to a role with a public accounting firm which will require an active license. Ms. McKay states given the current housing market, economic conditions and to her personal considerations, it would be a hardship for her and her family if she were unable to pursue this course of action. Ms. McKay license reverted to “delinquent” status on January 1, 2004 and “null and void” on January 1, 2006. Staff recommends extending the “delinquent” status of Ms. McKay’s license for six months in order for her to reactivate by completing the regular reactivation requirements under the unusual hardship provisions. Pgs. 9-11
- D. Marvin P. Stein, AC 4568 - Mr. Stein is requesting reinstatement of his license. He states in 2004 and continued through 2005 he employed an individual that he did not find out until the individual walked out on him that had Bi-Polar Disorder. He states during 2004 and especially 2005, he had to deal with many issues related to his performance, client contact, etc. which diverted his attention from taking care of his CPE and license.

Mr. Stein states his home and office was directly affected by Hurricane Katrina in August 23, 2005 and Hurricane Wilma in October 19, 2005. Mr. Stein states upon finding out his license reverted to “null and void” status he has engaged in a nonstop effort to complete the required hours of CPE. He states he has completed 64 hours and expects to complete the rest shortly. Mr. Stein’s license reverted to “delinquent” status on January 1, 2006 and “null and void” on January 1, 2008. Staff recommends extending the “delinquent” status of Mr. Stein’s license for six months in order for him to reactivate by completing the regular reactivation requirements under the unusual hardship provisions. Pgs. 12 - 15

- E. William T. Tinsley III, AC 6295 – Mr. Tinsley is requesting to reinstate his license. He states he previously requested reinstatement of his license in which he explained that he suffered a stroke on January 5, 2005 which prevented him from completing the CPE requirements. He states he intended on catching them up, and he has done some of them. Mr. Tinsley’s license reverted to “delinquent” status on January 1, 2006 and “null and void” on January 1, 2008. The Board of Accountancy, at their meeting, on August 26, 2005, approved an extension, without penalty, until December 31, 2005 for Mr. Tinsley to complete his 2005 CPE requirements. Staff recommends extending the “delinquent” status of Mr. Tinsley’s license for one year in order for him to reactivate by completing the regular reactivation requirements under the unusual hardship provisions. Pg. 16

III. Consider the following reactivation applications for denial.

- F. Robert A. Dorfman, AC 8398 - Mr. Dorfman is required to complete 200 CPE hours with 50 in accounting and auditing and eight (8) in board approved ethics for the period ending December 31, 2008. He is deficient four (4) CPE hours in board approved ethics for the period ending December 31, 2008. Pgs. 50 - 52
- G. Richard E. English, AC 28839 - Mr. English is required to complete 160 CPE hours with 40 in accounting and auditing and eight (8) in board approved ethics for the period ending June 30, 2009. He is deficient sufficient proof of attendance for courses completed on 11/29/06, 12/13/06 and 12/12/07 – missing sponsor's signature. Pgs. 53 - 57
- H. Albert Gomez, AC 13893 - Mr. Gomez is required to complete 160 CPE hours with 40 in accounting and auditing and eight (8) in board approved ethics for the period ending June 30, 2008. He is deficient a complete application and sufficient proof of attendance for all courses listed on reporting form – no proofs submitted. Pgs. 58 - 59
- I. Tom Law, AC 11499 - Mr. Law is required to complete 240 CPE hours with 60 in accounting and auditing and eight (8) in board approved ethics for the period ending November 12, 2008. Board approved an extension of delinquent status until November 12, 2008 to reactivate null and void license. He is deficient a complete application, a signed reporting form, 176 total CPE hours with 60 in accounting and auditing and four (4) in board approved ethics for the period ending November 12, 2008 and sufficient proof of attendance for course completed on 07/31/08 – no proof submitted. Pgs. 60 - 61
- J. Craig C. Lewis, AC 35856 - Mr. Lewis is required to complete 120 CPE hours with 30 in accounting and auditing and four (4) in board approved ethics for the period ending June 30, 2008. He is deficient a $155 fee, a complete application, eight (8) total CPE hours with four (4) in board approved ethics for the period ending June 30, 2008, sufficient proof of attendance for courses completed on 07/31/05, 11/10/05 and 05/30/08 – no proof submitted and passing score on the laws and rules exam. Pgs. 62 – 65

- K. Rafael A. Nones, AC 33499 - Mr. Nones is required to complete 240 CPE hours with 60 in accounting and auditing and eight (8) in board approved ethics for the period ending June 30, 2009. He is deficient six (6) CPE hours in accounting and auditing for the period ending June 30, 2009 and a passing score on the laws and rules exam. Pg. 66

She is deficient a $90 fee, a complete application and 70 CPE hours with four (4) in board approved ethics. Pgs. 67 - 69
- V. Consider allowing Paul J. Connealy, AC 19932 to reinstatement of his license. Mr. Connealy contacted the board office on November 6, 2008 to find out what was required to get his license on “active” status. Board staff informed him that based on the information in our records his license should be “null and void”; however, there is a note in his records stating an “inactive” request was opened but cancelled because his license was in military exempt status. Mr. Connealy informed board staff that he was released from active duty in 2003 and he sent his release papers to the board office. He also stated that he received a “current active” license to expire December 31, 2007. Board staff contact the Central Intake Unit and was informed that Mr. Connealy 2005 renewal was approved because he was on military exempt status and no CE is required. Staff recommends allowing Mr. Connealy to reactivate his license starting with the reestablishment period ending June 30, 2005. pgs. 70 - 73
- VI. Consider reactivation applications for convictions only.
- A. Charles E. Arrowood, AC 24544 – Applicant charged with domestic violence in 1997; attended anger management class. Pgs. 74 - 79
