At a meeting on December 17, 2001, the Board of Accountancy considered your request for an opinion and agreed with your conclusion that Chapter 473, F.S. and 61H1, F.A.C. do not prohibit a CPA from providing tax return preparation, review and signature, advice and review of financial statements to a non-CPA firm. However, the CPA must conform with all applicable standards including the Standards for Tax Practice and the Standards for Assembled Financial Statements.

Please keep in mind that this opinion is based solely on the facts set forth in your letter and is not intended to be an opinion of general applicability. Furthermore, we have not conducted an independent factual investigation to determine whether other relevant facts do or may exist. We have not determined whether any aspects of these transactions run afoul of any law or rule other than those specifically mentioned herein.

Sincerely,

DIVISION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING
