In compliance with Chapter 210, Florida Statutes, all changes of vending machine locations must be reported to the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco. This form is to be used by vending machine operators to report locations of machines monthly. If no changes took place during a month, then a statement to this effect should be noted on the report.

NOTE: 1. New placements of vending machines should be listed first and so indicated.
2. Vending machines removed from locations should be listed next and so indicated, and must include the number of packages of cigarettes "returned to stock".
