Temporary licenses are required of out-of-state certified public accountants or firms in each instance in which such out-of-state certified public accountants or firms utilize out-of-state personnel to perform a specific engagement for a client within the State of Florida. Application for temporary licenses must be filed prior to commencement of the engagement. A temporary license shall not be required of a person entering the State of Florida solely for the purpose of preparing federal tax returns or advising as to federal tax matters [F.S. 473.314(3)].

A temporary permit is to be used when out-of-state personnel will be located within the State of Florida to perform the specific engagement. A temporary permit- electronic practice is to be used when out-of-state personnel will be located outside the State of Florida but will utilize electronic means to perform the specific engagement.

No temporary license shall be valid for more than 90 days after its issuance. No license shall cover more than one engagement. After the expiration of 90 days, a new license will be required. Licenses will not be issued retroactively.

If applicant desires to substitute personnel or bring additional personnel into the state to fulfill the specific engagement applied for, he or she shall notify the Department of the names of such substituted personnel or additional personnel as soon as practical.

For more information regarding the requirements necessary for CPA Non Resident Temporary Practice Permit please refer to Chapter 61H1-29 of the Florida Administrative Code at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/ChapterHome.asp?Chapter=61H1-29>.

CPA Non Resident Temporary Practice Permit Requirements:
