The State of Florida offers four methods by which an individual who has passed the CPA examination in another State may obtain a Florida CPA license:

1. Transferring Examination Grades, section 473.308(7) (a) 1, F.S.
2. Endorsement- Licensed in Another State, section 473.308(7) (b) 1.a., F.S.
3. Endorsement- Licensed in Another State at least 10 years section 473.308(7) (b) 1.c., F.S.
4. Endorsement- Licensed in Another State with at least five (5) years of experience, section 473.308(8), F.S.

Requirements for Transferring Examination Grades

- Applicant is not licensed and has not been licensed in another state or territory.
- An individual must have passed all four parts of the A.I.C.P.A. Uniform CPA Examination, with a grade of at least 75 on all four parts (or passed the IQEX with a grade of 75 or better for Approved Chartered Accountants.)
- Applicant must have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and 150 semester hours or 225 quarter hours of college education, unless one is using the provisions of the unaccredited institutions rule, as explained below, with a concentration in accounting and business.
- One year of work experience is required if application for licensure is made after December 31, 2008.
- If it has been two or more years since you passed the CPA Exam, then 80 hours of CPE with at least 20 hours in accounting/auditing subjects are required. No more than 20 hours are allowed in behavioral subject. The time period for these hours is the 24 months immediately prior to when the Board office receives the application.

Requirements for Endorsement

- Applicant holds a valid license to practice public accounting issued by another state or territory of the United States, where the criteria for issuance of such license is substantially equivalent to the licensure criteria that existed in this state at the time the license was issued; OR
- Applicant holds a valid license to practice public accounting issued by another state or territory of the United States; and

No more than 20 hours are allowed in the behavioral subjects. The time period for these hours is the 24 months immediately prior to when the Board office receives the application.
- If an applicant for endorsement has been licensed in another state at least 10 years as a certified public accountant, the Board of Accountancy will waive the educational requirements and work experience. For more information about this waiver please refer to section 473.308(7) (c), Florida Statutes.
- If an applicant for endorsement has at least five (5) years of public, industry, academia, or governmental accounting experience, after licensure, as a CPA or approved Chartered Accountant, the Board of Accountancy will waive the educational requirements which are in excess of a baccalaureate degree. For more information about this waiver please refer to section 473.308(8), Florida Statutes.

Accreditation

The Board accepts degrees from schools accredited by the following associations: Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Higher Learning Commission, Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Western Association of Schools and Colleges, Association of Independent Colleges and Schools regulated by the Commission for Independent Education and exempted from licensure by the CIE under the provisions of Section 246.085, F.S. and Canadian, Australian, Mexican, Irish, New Zealand and Hong Kong academic accounting programs approved by the provincial educational bodies or the equivalent educational accreditation body for that country. If you have graduated from a school or college which is not accredited by the above mentioned means, then you must use the provisions of F.A.C. 61H1-27.001 (5) (see below).

Applicants Who Have Graduated from Non-Accredited Schools (61H1-27.001 (5))

Applicants who have graduated from a non-accredited school may still qualify for CPA licensure. The applicant must complete at least 15 semester or 22 quarter hours of graduate classes, of which nine (9) semester or 13 quarter hours must be accounting and three (3) semester or four (4) quarter hours of tax. THESE HOURS MUST BE TAKEN AFTER ADMISSION TO A GRADUATE BUSINESS DEGREE PROGRAM. If the courses are taken before admission to a graduate program, the classes will not be accepted, even if the school includes them as part of the graduate program. These courses cannot duplicate other courses, which the applicant has taken. The applicant must complete the graduate school courses to validate the non-accredited degree. The applicant must also meet all other educational requirements for CPA licensure applicants. An evaluation of the unaccredited transcripts must be completed by an evaluation service, which has been approved by the Board (see Board Approval Evaluation Services attached).

For more information regarding the educational requirements necessary for CPA licensure please refer to Chapter 61H1-27 of the Florida Administrative Code at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/ChapterHome.asp?Chapter=61H1-27>.

For more information regarding continuing professional education (CPE) requirements please refer to Chapter 61H1-33 of the Florida Administrative Code at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/ChapterHome.asp?Chapter=61H1-33>.
