

Below are checked item(s) that are necessary to support an allegation of failure to disclose the method of allocating income and expenses in the annual financial statements or turnover audit:

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	A copy of the year-end financial report (report of cash receipts and disbursements) or statement.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Documentation that supports the association did not prepare a year-end financial report/statement. Example: a copy of your written request to inspect this record.
<input type="checkbox"/>	A copy of the notice received indicating the availability of the year-end financial report or statement.