

Below are checked item(s) that are necessary to support an allegation for failure of outgoing board or committee member or relinquish all official records and property of the association in his or her possession or under their control to the incoming board within 5 days after the election:

| | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Proof that the person with the association official records or the association property was a board or committee member. |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Documentation demonstrating the date at which the board or committee member was no longer a member of the board. |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Proof that the former association board or committee member had possession or control of the official records in question. |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Proof that the former association board or committee member had possession or control of the association's property in question. |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Proof demonstrating that the former board or committee member knowingly and willfully failed to relinquish possession or control of the official records or association property in question. |