IN RE: PETITION FOR DECLARATORY STATEMENT

Docket No. 2015034455

CRISTELLE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION OF BROWARD COUNTY, INC.

DECLARATORY STATEMENT

The Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes (hereinafter the "Division") issues this Declaratory Statement under section 120.565, Florida Statutes.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Division received a Petition for Declaratory Statement on August 5, 2015, from Cristelle Condominium Association of Broward County, Inc. (hereinafter the "Petitioner") seeking a declaratory statement as to whether the replacement of wallpaper with textured paint and the carpeting with terracotta colored marble are material alterations of, or substantial additions to, the common elements under section 718.113, Florida Statutes. The Division's counsel responded on August 10, 2015, confirming receipt of Petitioner's request for a declaratory statement.

Notice of receipt of the Petition was published in the August 11, 2015, issue of the Florida Administrative Register.

The Petitioner did not request a hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The following findings of fact are based on information submitted by Petitioner. The Division takes no position as to the accuracy of the facts and accepts them as submitted by Petitioner for the purposes of issuing this declaratory statement.
1. Petitioner is a condominium association located at 1700 South Ocean Boulevard, Lauderdale By the Sea, FL 33062.

2. The condominium is a high-rise building located along the ocean in Lauderdale By the Sea.

3. It consists of twenty-two (22) floors with the first (3) three floors being primarily dedicated to common areas (the 2nd and 3rd floors each have two (2) residential units) and the top nineteen (19) floors being dedicated to residential units containing four (4) units per floor, for a total of (80) units.

4. The floors containing the residential units have common area hallways which were originally developed, in part, utilizing terracotta colored marble, and carpeting, or if unit owners wanted upgraded floor covering, the entire floor is covered with terracotta colored marble.

5. Every residential floor (common area portion) has terracotta colored marble around, at least, the elevator area that leads to an area covered by carpet, or fully containing terracotta marble flooring to the entry door of each unit, thus some residential floors have all terracotta colored marble flooring and no carpeting at all.

6. The developer utilized different wallpaper covering in the common areas of various floors.

7. The building’s proximity to the ocean has led to significant moisture and salt water exposure issues to the entire building, especially affecting the areas of the residential floors which are exposed to the elevator shafts which are not climatized.

8. This issue was not apparent when the building was first constructed in 1997.

9. A recent inspection revealed that there has been a significant moisture problem behind the wallpaper and underneath the carpeting.

10. There is also an issue with delamination of wallpaper and staining because of the moisture intrusion.

11. Petitioner’s consultants believe that the existence and/or continued threat of mold, delamination and staining of the wallpaper will continue to occur if the Petitioner reinstalls wallpaper and carpeting in these areas.
12. The cost of reinstalling the same materials, wallpaper and carpeting will be extraordinary, as readily-available substitutes that are not materially different than what was originally installed cannot be located, thus requiring them to be custom manufactured.

13. Petitioner wants to follow the advice of its consultant to remove the wallpaper and replace it with textured paint in a similar pattern and color currently existing, and to replace the carpeting with the same terracotta colored marble as currently installed on every residential floors (in whole or in part).

14. Petitioner is seeking a declaratory statement as to whether the replacement of the wallpaper with textured paint and the carpeting with terracotta marble are material alterations of, or substantial additions to, the common elements under Section 718.113, Florida Statutes.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Division has jurisdiction to enter this order pursuant to sections 718.501 and 120.565, Florida Statutes.

2. Section 120.565, Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part:

   (1) Any substantially affected person may seek a declaratory statement regarding an agency's opinion as to the applicability of a statutory provision, or of any rule or order of the agency, as it applies to the petitioner's particular set of circumstances.

   (2) The petition seeking a declaratory statement shall state with particularity the petitioner's set of circumstances and shall specify the statutory provision, rule, or order that the petitioner believes may apply to the set of circumstances.

3. Rule 28-105.001, Florida Administrative Code provides:

   A declaratory statement is a means for resolving a controversy or answering questions or doubts concerning the applicability of statutory provisions, rules, or orders over which the agency has authority. A petition for declaratory statement may be used to resolve questions or doubts as to how the statutes, rules, or orders may apply to the petitioner's particular circumstances. A declaratory statement is not the appropriate means for determining the court of another person.

4. Petitioner has standing to petition for a declaratory statement as a condominium

5. Section 718.113(2)(a), Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part:

   Except as otherwise provided in this section, there shall be no material alteration or substantial additions to the common elements or to real property which is association property, except in a manner provided in the declaration as originally recorded or as amended under the procedures provided therein. If the declaration as originally recorded or as amended under the procedures provided therein does not specify the procedure for approval of material alterations or substantial additions, 75 percent of the total voting interests of the association must approve the alterations or additions.

6. The term “material alteration,” as applied to common elements of a condominium, means “to palpably or perceptively vary or change the form, shape, elements or specifications … from the original design or plan, or existing condition, in such a manner as to appreciably affect or influence its function, use, or appearance”. Sterling Vill. Condo., Inc. v. Breitenbach, 251 So. 2d 685, 687 (Fla. 4th DCA 1971). In Sterling, the unit owners replaced the screens on their porch with glass jalousie, without the consent of the association. Id. at 686. The court determined that the unit owners’ actions constituted a change in the elements as they were “originally designed or existing at the time of the change” which affected and influenced “the function, use, and appearance of the building.” Id. As such, the court held that the actions constituted a material alteration to the common elements.

7. The following changes to common elements have also been deemed material alterations or additions: painting the exterior of the building a different color, Islandia Condo. Ass’n, Inc. v. Vermut, 501 So. 2d 741 (Fla. 4th DCA 1987);
installation of hurricane shutters, Schmeck v. Sea Oats Condo. Ass’n, Inc., 441
So. 2d 1092 (Fla. 5th DCA 1983); construction of a patio on the common elements, Fountains of Palm Beach Condo., Inc., No. 5 v. Farkas, 355 So. 2d 163 (Fla. 4th DCA 1978); changing from cedar shingles to terracotta tiles on roof

8. Here, Petitioner is seeking to “replace” the wallpaper with textured paint in a similar pattern and color currently existing. Petitioner is also seeking to “replace” the carpeting with terracotta colored marble.

9. Replacing the wallpaper with textured paint will palpably or perceptively change the elements of the hallway walls from the original design in such a manner as to appreciably affect its appearance. Although the color and pattern of the paint will be similar to the currently existing color and pattern, the change in the materials covering the wall will appreciably affect its appearance. Therefore, the replacement of the wallpaper with textured paint constitutes a material alteration of the common elements.

10. Likewise, replacing the carpeting with terracotta colored marble will palpably or perceptively change the elements of the hallway floors from the original design in such a manner as to appreciably affect its appearance. Therefore, the replacement of the carpeting with terracotta colored marble constitutes a material alteration of the common elements.

11. Section 718.113(2)(a), Florida Statutes, provides that when materially altering the common elements, an association must follow the method provided for in its Declaration, if applicable. It appears that Article VIII, Section C of the Petitioner’s Declaration addresses the proposed changes and, therefore, the proposed changes should follow the procedure set forth therein.¹

For the reasons stated above it is hereby:

¹ Article VIII, Section C, of Petitioner’s Declaration provides that “[a]ny change in the color of the Common Elements, or any part thereof (including but not limited to, changes in the color of any carpeting, walls or wall treatments, ...), and any change in the design of the Common Elements (or any part thereof) must be approved by seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of all Voting Representatives of the Condominium.”

Petitioner: CRISTELLE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION OF BROWARD COUNTY,
INC. (the “Association”)
1700 SOUTH OCEAN BOULEVARD
LAUDERDALE BY THE SEA, FL 33062
Our File No. 6397.000
Hallway Wall and Floor Coverings

To whom it may concern:

Please be advised this firm represent the above-referenced Association. The Association requests the Division’s guidance pursuant to F.A.C. 28-105.001 on the following issue: whether certain alterations the Association may make are material alterations, or alternatively, whether said alterations are within the repair and maintenance function of the Association. Due to the Association’s obligation to maintain, repair, and replace existing improvements within the common areas of the building, the Association is committed to replace the hallways and floor coverings. Thus, the Association has an immediate and practical need for the Division’s guidance on the applicability of F.S. 718.113 to these circumstances and such request is neither theoretical nor hypothetical.

The building is a high-rise building located along the ocean in Lauderdale By The Sea, Broward County, Florida. The building consists of 22 floors, with the first three (3) floors being primarily dedicated to common areas (each the 2nd and 3rd Floor has two residential units) and the top nineteen (19) floors being dedicated to residential units containing four (4) units per floor, for a total of eighty (80) units. The floors containing the residential units involving common area hallways were originally developed, in part, utilizing terracotta colored marble, and carpeting, or if unit owners wanted to upgrade floor covering on their floors, the entire floor is covered with terracotta colored marble.

Simply, every residential floor (common area portion) has terracotta colored marble around, at least, the elevator area that leads to an area covered by carpet, or fully containing the terracotta marble flooring to the entry door of each unit, thus, some of the residential floors have all terracotta colored marble flooring and no carpeting whatsoever. The developer utilized wall paper as the original wall coverings on the residential floors, utilizing different wall coverings on various floors.

Due to the Association's proximity to the ocean, the Association experiences significant moisture and salt-water exposure issues to the entire building, especially affecting the areas of the residential floors which are exposed to the elevator shafts which are not climatized, thus bringing humidity into the residential floor areas, as confirmed by correspondence from a the third-party mitigation and restoration consultant retained by the Association, which is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”. When the building was first constructed in 1997, the issues regarding moisture and salt-water exposure were not apparent. During the past several years, as confirmed by a recent inspection of the building, it was discovered that there was significant moisture problems behind the existing wall paper and underneath the carpeting, as well as issues regarding delamination of the wall paper and staining because of the intrusion of moisture as confirmed by photographs attached hereto as composite Exhibit “B”. Obviously, the Association is extremely concerned that these moisture issues are and will create mold issues within the habitable areas of the building. According to the Association's consultants, the existence and/or continued threat of mold, delamination and staining problems of the wall paper will continue to occur if the Association reinstalls wall paper and carpeting, as confirmed by Exhibit “A” hereto. Additionally, if the Association were to reinstall the wall paper and carpeting as originally installed by the Developer, the cost will be extraordinary because the Association cannot locate readily-available substitutes that are not materially different than what was originally installed and therefore would require the wall paper and carpeting to be custom manufactured.

The Association desires to follow the advice of its consultants and remove the wall paper and carpeting to remediate the mold issues and as part of the Association's maintenance obligations, replace the wall paper with textured paint in a similar pattern and color currently existing, and to replace the carpeting with the same terracotta colored marble as currently installed on every residential floor (currently either in whole or in part). The Association’s consultants have recommended that substituting these materials for the existing currently installed materials on the floors and walls will mitigate the moisture intrusion issues.

The Association believes the replacement of the wall paper with textured paint and the carpeting with the terracotta marble are part of the Association's repair and maintenance functions and, as such, are not material alterations, and/or substantial additions. Tiffany Plaza Condominium Association v. Spencer, 416 So.2d 823 (Fla. 2nd DCA 1982).

At the present time the Association does not request a hearing, but reserves the right to do so at a later time.
Additionally, attached hereto are the Association's governing documents, including its Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, and any amendments to the same.

If I can provide any additional information regarding this request, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

FRANK WEINBERG & BLACK, PL

Subject: question regarding the PH commons repairs

Good Morning Jeannie,

I am in the process of sanding and encapsulating the baseboards from the PH commons level. I will be able to install them next week. The drywall contractor mentioned the level 5 smooth finish I asked him to complete was not necessary due to the fact you will be having wallpaper re-hung.

After the remediation project and the removal of the mold damaged building materials in this area, I highly recommend not placing wallpaper back in this area.

I have seen this type of mold growth over the last 20+ years in the restoration industry, when there is an unconditioned air space adjacent to an air conditioned space due to the temperature differences, condensation, wallpaper and an ideal food source for mold. The back side of wall paper seems to grow mold when there are temperature differences and humidity like this. I have seen this condition even with proper insulation installed.

Just a recommendation, again having seen this issue many times. Let me know what you decide to do and feel free to email or call with any questions you might have.

Such Amendment need be executed and acknowledged only by the Declarant with the formalities of the execution of a deed, and shall include reference to the recording information identifying this Declaration, but need not be approved, consented to, or joined in by the Condominium Association, any Unit Owner, and/or any lienor or mortgagee (including, without limitation, any Institutional First Mortgagee) of a Unit in the Condominium, whether or not elsewhere required for amendment of this Declaration, and no Certificate of the Condominium Association shall be required.

B. Except as to the amendment rights reserved by the Declarant in this Declaration, no amendment which materially affects the rights or interests of any mortgagee (including, without limitation, any Institutional Mortgagee), including, without limitation, any amendment which changes the configuration or size of any Condominium Unit in any material fashion, materially alters or modifies the appurtenances to the Unit, or changes the proportion or percentage by which the Owner of the Unit shares the Common Expenses and owns the Common Surplus or any amendment which permits time-share estates to be created in any Unit, or any amendment for which mortgagee joinder is required by the Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Association, unless (i) the record Owner of the Unit and all record holders of bona fide liens as to the Unit join in the execution of the amendment, or as to which such consent is evidenced by a recorded affidavit of the Condominium Association in accordance with the Condominium Act, and, (ii) said amendment is adopted in accordance with Paragraph C below.

C. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, this Declaration may be amended at any time and from time to time upon the affirmative vote of Voting Representatives representing seventy-five percent (75%) of the Units in the Condominium, at a regular or special meeting of the members of the Condominium Association, the notice of which meeting shall include a copy of the proposed amendment or amendments. Proposals to amend existing provisions of the Declaration shall contain the full text of the provision to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text and underlined; and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of Declaration. See provision . . . for present text."

D. An amendment to this Declaration by Unit Owners pursuant to subparagraphs B and C above shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Amendment executed with the formalities of a deed, which Certificate of Amendment need only be executed by the President or Vice President of the Condominium Association and attested by the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary of the Condominium Association, and which shall include the subject amendment, the recording data identifying this Declaration, and an affidavit attached thereto executed by such President or Vice President and attested by such Secretary or Assistant Secretary certifying that the amendment was made in accordance with the terms of this Declaration. All amendments shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County.

E. Under no circumstances shall any amendment of this Declaration be adopted which would eliminate, modify, prejudice, abridge or otherwise affect any rights, benefits, privileges or priorities granted or reserved to the Declarant, without the prior written consent of the Declarant in each instance. For so long as the Declarant owns one or more Units in the Condominium, the Declarant's prior written consent must be obtained to any amendment to this Declaration, and any amendment without such consent shall be null and void.

F. Amendments to the Condominium Articles of Incorporation and the Condominium Bylaws shall be in accordance with Article XII of this Declaration.

B. Amendments to the Condominium Articles of Incorporation or the Condominium Bylaws shall be made in the manner provided therefor in the Condominium Articles of Incorporation and the Condominium Bylaws, respectively.
C. No modification or amendment to the Condominium Articles of Incorporation or the Condominium Bylaws shall be deemed valid unless set forth in or annexed to a duly recorded amendment to this Declaration, nor shall any modification or amendment thereof be deemed valid which is inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Declaration, unless such provision of this Declaration is likewise amended.

A. BY A UNIT OWNER

1. No Unit Owner shall make any addition, alteration, or improvement in or to any portions of the Unit Owner's Unit or any Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, without the express prior written consent of the Condominium Association pursuant to the Condominium Documents. If the Unit Owner fails to construct the addition, alteration or improvement in the manner approved, the Unit Owner shall be obligated to make all corrections necessary upon demand by the Condominium Association; provided, however, that the Condominium Association shall also be entitled to pursue any other remedies available in law and/or equity.

3. This Paragraph A shall not apply to internal improvements to Units as long as such improvements have no impact on the Condominium Building containing the subject Unit, have no impact on any other Unit Owner, and are not visible from outside the subject Unit.

4. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, a Unit Owner shall not make any alterations to the Unit Owner's Unit which would remove any portion of, or make any additions to, Common Elements, or do anything which would adversely affect the safety or soundness of the Common Elements or any portion of the Condominium Property which is to be maintained by the Condominium Association.

B. BY THE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

If, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the Common Elements (or any part thereof) shall require capital additions, alterations, or improvements (exclusive of necessary repairs) costing the Condominium Association in excess of $25,000 in the aggregate in any calendar year, then the Condominium Association may proceed with such additions, alterations... or improvements only if the making of such additions, alterations or improvements shall have been approved by a majority of the votes of all Voting Representatives in the Condominium. Any insubstantial capital additions, non-material alterations or insubstantial and non-material improvements to the Common Elements (or any part thereof) costing the Condominium Association in the aggregate $25,000 or less in a calendar year, and any necessary repairs to the Common Elements (or any part thereof), may be made by the Board of Directors without approval of the Unit Owners. Any material alteration, substantial addition, or material or substantial improvement to the Common Elements may be made only if approved by seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of all Voting Representatives of the Condominium. C. CHANGES TO COLOR OR DESIGN OF COMMON ELEMENTS

Any change in the color of the Common Elements, or any part thereof (including, but not limited to, changes in the color of any carpeting, walls or wall treatments, interior designs and appointments, any improvement, or the exterior of any building or structure, or landscaping, or changes in, or additions to, or deletions of any furnishings located on the Common Elements), and any change in the design of the Common Elements (or any part thereof) must be approved by seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of all Voting Representatives of the Condominium.

D. PROVISO: BY THE DECLARANT

The foregoing restrictions of this Article VIII shall not apply to the following changes, additions, deletions, alterations, or improvements made by the Declarant. The Declarant shall have the right, without the consent or approval of the Condominium Association, any Unit Owner, and/or any liensors or mortgagees, to: (i) make changes, alterations, deletions, additions, or improvements, structural and nonstructural, ordinary and extraordinary, in, to and upon any Unit owned by the Declarant; and/or (ii) make changes, alterations, deletions, additions or improvements in, to and upon the Common Elements, or any part thereof for purposes of making changes required by any governmental (or quasi-governmental) body, agency, district, department or authority or for purposes of making changes necessitated for construction or engineering purposes; and/or (iii) change the layout or number of rooms in any Units owned by the Declarant; (iv) change the type and layout of the Common Elements for purposes of complying with Chapter 161, Florida Statutes; and/or (v) change the size and/or number of Units owned by the Declarant by subdividing and/or combining one (1) or more Units, or otherwise, and reapportion among the Units owned by the Declarant affected by such change their appurtenant interest in the Common Elements and share of the Common Surplus and Common Expenses. Any amendment of this Declaration under this subparagraph D need be signed and acknowledged only by the Declarant, and need not be approved by the Condominium Association, any Unit Owner, or any lienor or mortgagee whether or not elsewhere required for an amendment. For so long as the Declarant owns any interest in, or owns any mortgage against, any Unit, the provisions of this Article may not be amended or deleted without the prior written consent of the Declarant.

IX. PERCENTAGE OF OWNERSHIP OF COMMON ELEMENTS AND VOTING RIGHTS

A. Each Unit in the Condominium shall have an undivided percentage share of ownership of the Common Elements as shown in Exhibit No. "2" attached hereto. For purposes of identification, each Condominium Unit has been numbered and/or lettered. The respective undivided interests as set forth in Exhibit No. "2" have been carefully established, and cannot be changed, altered or amended, except by the Declarant to correct typographical errors and as further provided by Article VIIIID. of this Declaration and by the Condominium Act. The basis for determining the undivided interest and/or fractional shares set forth in Exhibit No. "2" is that the undivided interests and/or fractional shares are to be equal for all Units. The undivided interests and/or fractional share is determined based on a fraction, the numerator of which is 1 and the denominator of which shall equal the number of Units in the Condominium.

B. Unit Owners shall be entitled to one (1) vote in the Condominium Association for each Unit owned, to the extent provided for in the Condominium Documents and the Condominium Act. The Voting Representative, who must be designated by a Voting certificate signed by all of the Unit Owners of said Unit and filed with the Secretary of the Condominium Association, shall be entitled to cast the vote for the Unit. Such Voting certificate shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent Voting certificate, or until a change in the ownership of the Unit concerned, as more particularly set forth in the Condominium Articles of Incorporation and Condominium Bylaws.

(3) The Condominium Association shall have the power to grant perpetual and nonperpetual easements over, under, across and/or through the Common Elements, in its own name and without the joinder or approval of any Unit Owner, as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, provided, that said easements so created shall not materially and permanently interfere with the uses for which the Common Elements are intended.

(4) The foregoing easements are an addition to the rights of access provided for in §718.111(5) of the Condominium Act.

B. TO EMERGENCY VEHICLES

Perpetual easements are hereby created for the right of all lawful emergency vehicles, equipment and Persons operating same to pass over and across all portions of the Condominium Property to service the Unit Owners and the Condominium Property.

C. FOR ENCROACHMENTS

All of the Condominium Property shall be and hereby is made subject to perpetual easements for encroachments, which now or hereafter exist, caused by shifting, settlement or movement of any improvements within the Condominium or caused by minor inaccuracies in the construction, repair or alteration of such improvements, and such easements shall continue until such encroachments no longer exist. In the event the Condominium is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt, the Unit Owners agree that encroachments of parts of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements or Units, as described, shall be permitted and there shall be a valid easement for said encroachments.

D. TO UNIT OWNERS

A perpetual nonexclusive easement is hereby granted to all Unit Owners (and their families, guests, lessees and invitees) for vehicular and pedestrian ingress and egress over, upon and across those portions of the Common Elements as may from time to time be intended for such uses and purposes. Such easement shall include the right of ingress and egress to and from Ocean Boulevard (S.R. A-1-A), the public highway contiguous to the Property.
E. FOR STRUCTURAL SUPPORT

Each Unit shall have a perpetual easement for structural support over every other Unit and over that portion of the Common and Limited Common Elements supporting such Unit, and each portion of the Common and Limited Common Elements shall have an easement for support over all Units and all portions of the Common and Limited Common Elements supporting such portion of the Common and Limited Common Elements.

F. FOR CONSTRUCTION/Maintenance/SALES, ETC.

Perpetual, nonexclusive easement(s) are hereby created in favor of Declarant, its successors and assigns, and its respective designees, contractors, agents and employees, over, upon, and through the Condominium Property for the purpose of completing the construction of the Condominium (or any part thereof), and in favor of the Condominium Association, its successors and assigns, and its respective designees, contractors, agents, and employees over, upon and through the Condominium Property for repair, replacement and maintenance purposes. A non-exclusive easement is hereby created in favor of Declarant, its successors and assigns, and its respective designees, agents and employees, over, upon and through the Common Elements for a period of five (5) years from the date of recording this Declaration in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida to conduct sales, resales and related marketing activities of Units owned by Declarant and other Unit Owners and to place directional signs on the Condominium Property to show the location where such sales and related activities are conducted. G. GENERAL

The easements set forth in this Article X shall be granted, reserved, or otherwise created without any additional consideration and shall run with the land and shall be binding upon every Unit Owner, the Condominium Association, the Declarant and every claimant of the Condominium Property or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns and all persons claiming by, through or under such persons. Should the intended creation of any easement fail by reason of the fact that at the time of creation there may be no grantee in being having the capacity to take and hold such easement, then any such grant of easement deemed not to be so created shall nevertheless be considered as having been granted directly to the Condominium Association for the purpose of allowing the original party or parties to whom the easements were originally granted the benefit of such easement, and the Unit Owners designate the Condominium
E. In any legal action in which the Condominium Association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the Unit Owners, the Condominium Association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all Unit Owners who may be exposed to the liability and they shall have the right to intervene and defend.

XIV. MAINTENANCE; LIMITATION UPON IMPROVEMENT

A. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair, and replacement of the Unit Owner's Unit and any part thereof (including, but not limited to, windows, screens [if applicable], fixtures, appliances, carpets and all other floor coverings, and all property belonging to the Unit Owner and the Unit Owner's family, invitees, licensees, guests and lessees), which work shall be performed by said Unit Owner at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, except as otherwise expressly provided to the contrary in the Condominium Documents.

B. The responsibility for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Elements shall be that of the Condominium Association, except as specifically provided otherwise in this Declaration.

C. In the event any Unit Owner fails to properly and timely maintain, repair and replace those portions of the Condominium Property for which said Unit Owner is responsible for maintaining, repairing, and/or replacing, or in the event any maintenance, repair, or replacement of the Condominium Property is needed as a result of the negligence, misuse or neglect by a Unit Owner(s) or Person for whom said Unit Owner(s) is responsible, the Condominium Association may, but shall not be obligated to, perform such repair, replacement or maintenance, and thereafter levy special charges against said Unit Owner for all costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by the Condominium Association in connection therewith. Said special charges shall constitute a lien against the said Unit Owner's Unit and may be foreclosed in the same manner as a mortgage of real property is foreclosed. This lien right is separate and apart from the Condominium Association's lien rights for unpaid Assessments under §718.116(5), of the Condominium Act.

D. No Unit Owner shall make any alterations in those portions of the Condominium Property which are to be maintained by the Condominium Association, or remove any portion thereof, or make any additions thereto, or do any work which would jeopardize the safety or soundness of the Condominium Property or impair any easement, unless otherwise permitted under the terms of this Declaration.

E. Notwithstanding the duty of the Condominium Association to maintain and repair parts of the Condominium Property, the Condominium Association shall not be liable to any Unit Owner or other Person for injury or damage caused by any latent condition of the property to be maintained and repaired by the Condominium Association, or caused by the elements or other Unit Owners or other Persons.
XV. COMMON EXPENSES

Each Unit Owner shall pay the Unit Owner’s share of the Common Expenses as more particularly described in Exhibit No. “2” attached hereto and made a part hereof.

A. Common Expenses, as generally defined in Article III of this Declaration and as set forth below in this Article XV, shall include (i) the expenses of the operation and administration of the Condominium, (ii) the expenses of the maintenance, repair or replacement of the Common Elements (including Limited Common Elements) including, without limitation, such expenses as are required to maintain manufacturer’s warranties on portions of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements and to perform preventative maintenance thereon, (iii) the costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the Condominium Association, (iv) the costs of insurance for officers and directors of the Condominium Association, (v) the costs of in-house communications and security services (if any), (vi) the costs and expenses related to the furnishing of cable television services to Unit Owners and of implementing and complying with any cable television contract entered into by the Condominium Association (if applicable), and (vii) any other expense designated as a Common Expense by the Condominium Act, and/or the Condominium Documents.

C. The Common Expenses of the Condominium shall be as determined by the Condominium Board of Directors from time to time, but not less frequently than annually, in the manner set forth in the Condominium Bylaws.

D. Working Capital contributions may be levied by the Condominium Association and charged to Unit Owners at the closing of a Unit Owner’s purchase of his Unit. The Working Capital contribution may be used to reimburse the Declarant for start-up expenses incurred by Declarant on behalf of the Condominium Association prior to, or simultaneously with, the time the closing and conveyance of title of the sale and purchase of the first (1st) Unit occurs, or otherwise as the Condominium Board of Directors shall determine. Such Working Capital contributions need not be restricted nor accumulated.

XVI. ASSESSMENTS; LIABILITY; LIEN AND PRIORITY; INTEREST; COLLECTIONS

A. Pursuant to the Condominium Act and the Condominium Documents, the Condominium Association, through its Board of Directors, shall have the right and power to fix and determine, from time to time, the sums necessary to provide for the budgetary requirements and Common Expenses of the Condominium Association, and the right and power to levy Condominium Assessments therefor in amounts to be set and determined by the Board of Directors. of the Condominium Association. All such Condominium Assessments and other revenues received by the Condominium Association shall be used exclusively for the benefit of the Unit Owners to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the Unit Owners, to establish a congenial residential community for the maximum benefit and enjoyment of all Unit Owners, to pay Common Expenses, and for the improvement, reconstruction, repair or replacement, maintenance and operation of the Condominium Property as provided in the Condominium Documents; Special Assessments shall be noticed and used in accordance with Section 718.116(10) of the Condominium Act. The charge and duty to pay all sums of money in the form of Condominium Assessments are deemed to be affirmative covenants which are annexed to, inherent in, and connected with the Condominium Property and touch and concern the land, the personal obligation for payment of which is expressly assumed by a Unit Owner upon acceptance of a conveyance or other transfer of title to a Unit. The payment of Condominium Assessments may not be avoided or otherwise withheld by any Unit Owner(s) regardless of whether or not the Condominium Association fails, neglects or refuses to perform and provide maintenance and other services mandated by the Condominium Documents except as otherwise specifically provided in this Article XVI.

B. In any voluntary conveyance or other transfer of title, except as provided in this Article XVI, the grantee or transferee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor or transferor for all unpaid Condominium Assessments against the grantor or transferor or the Unit for Common Expenses up to the time of the conveyance or other transfer, without prejudice to any right the grantee or transferee may have to recover from the grantor or transferor the amounts paid by the grantee or transferee.

C. The amount of all Condominium Assessments shall be fixed by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association and be payable at such times as set by the Board of Directors, but not less frequently than quarterly. Common Surplus, if any, shall be distributed by the Condominium Board of Directors in the manner provided in the Condominium Bylaws and with reference to the percentage interests as set forth in Exhibit No. "2" attached hereto.

D. The Condominium Board of Directors shall approve, in advance, budgets for this Condominium for each fiscal year, which budgets shall project anticipated income and estimated expenses in sufficient detail to show separate estimates for taxes, if any, and insurance for the Common Elements, plus operating and maintenance expenses, and other reasonable and necessary expenses, as more particularly provided in the Condominium Bylaws.

E. The annual budget of this Condominium shall be apportioned among all Units in this Condominium in accordance with the percentage interests set forth in Exhibit No. "2" attached hereto. The annual percentage share of the Condominium budget for each Unit shall initially be broken into twelve (12) equal parts, payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month of each calendar year; but the Condominium Board of Directors has the power to establish other collection procedures, such as quarterly payments, and to designate any duly authorized managing agent, bank, savings and loan association, or mortgage company to act as collection agent. In addition, the Condominium Association has the right and power to levy Special Assessments against each Unit in accordance with the percentage interest set forth in Exhibit No. "2".

F. In addition to annual operating expenses of the Condominium Association, the annual budget shall include, and assessments levied against each Unit Owner shall be for, reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance as may be required by the Condominium Act unless waived or otherwise limited in accordance with the Condominium Act.

G. The liability for Condominium Assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any Common Elements or by abandonment of the Unit for which the Condominium Assessments are made.

H. Condominium Assessments which are not paid when due shall bear interest from the date they are due at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum until paid, if paid within sixty (60) days of due date, and eighteen percent (18%) per annum until paid, if paid after sixty (60) days of the due date, or at such other rate allowable by law as may be determined by the Board of Directors and permitted by the Condominium Act; provided, however, that such interest charges shall be deemed to be waived in the event that the Condominium Assessment is paid within thirty (30) days after it is due.

I. In addition to delinquent Condominium Assessments due and owing to the Condominium Association and interest accrued thereon, the Board of Directors may require the delinquent Unit Owner to additionally pay a reasonable late fee (the amount to be set forth in the Condominium Bylaws) for Condominium Assessments due and owing for a period of longer than thirty (30) days, which all Unit Owners, by acceptance of a conveyance or other transfer of title to any Unit in this Condominium, agree is a fair and reasonable sum since the measure of actual damages is difficult to ascertain, for purposes of compensating the Condominium Association for the expense of carrying the delinquent sums due on the books and records of the Condominium Association, for sending letters as to nonpayment and institution of collection procedures short of court action, and for other administrative costs. No waiver or forbearance of any late fees due as set forth in this Article shall be effective unless set forth in writing by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association. A waiver or forbearance as to late fees, or a determination made that such late fees are invalid, shall in no way affect Condominium Assessments due and interest accrued thereon.

J. Accrued interest on all delinquent sums is expressly limited in all contingencies and events whatsoever, such that the rate of interest imposed in this Declaration shall never exceed the maximum rate of interest which may be charged against the particular Unit Owner under applicable Florida law. Under any circumstances whatsoever, if the rate of interest resulting from the payment and/or accrual of any amount of interest due pursuant to this Declaration shall exceed the aforesaid rate limits prescribed by Florida law, then the payment and/or accrual of such interest shall be reduced and/or repaid so as to comply with the maximum rate of interest permissible as to a particular delinquent Unit Owner under Florida law.

K. All payments received from any delinquent Unit Owner shall be applied as follows: (i) to accrued interest; (ii) to accrued late fees; then (iii) to costs and attorneys’ fees incurred by the Condominium Association in collection; then (iv) to past due Condominium Assessments; and lastly (v) to current Condominium Assessments.

L. In addition to, and without limitation of, each Unit Owner’s other obligations to the Condominium Association hereunder, the Condominium Association shall have a continuing lien (hereinafter the “Lien”) upon each Unit for any unpaid Condominium Assessments, together with, to the extent permitted by applicable law, interest, and costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by the Condominium Association which are incident to the collection of the assessment and/or enforcement of the lien. Such Lien shall be superior to all rights of homestead arising in favor of any Unit Owner. The Lien referred to herein shall be enforced by the Condominium Association filing a Claim of Lien against the Unit Owner and the Condominium Parcel of such Unit Owner who has failed to pay any Condominium Assessment for a period of thirty (30) days from the date when first due. Except as to first mortgages of record, the Lien is effective from and after the recording of the Declaration in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, and, with respect to first mortgages of record, this Lien is effective from and after the recording of the Claim of Lien in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, which states the description of the Condominium Parcel, the name of the record owner, the name and address of the Condominium Association, the amount due, and the due dates. The Claim of Lien shall secure all unpaid Condominium Assessments, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorneys’ fees to the extent permitted by applicable law, which are due and which may accrue subsequent to the recording of the Claim of Lien and prior to the entry of a certificate of title. Such Claim of Lien shall be executed by an Officer or authorized agent of the Condominium Association. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the right of the Association to accelerate Assessments of an Owner delinquent in Owner’s payment of Common Expenses (or any Assessment). Accelerated Assessments shall be due and payable on the date the Claim of Lien is recorded in the Public Records of the County. Such accelerated Assessments shall include the amounts due for the remainder of the budget year in which the Claim of Lien was recorded.

M. The Condominium Association, in its own name, including in its own name by its agent pursuant to a power-of-attorney, may enforce the Lien by foreclosure in the same manner as a mortgage of real property is foreclosed, and/or may also bring an action to recover a money judgment for the unpaid sums without waiving any lien rights, and/or proceed by any other manner authorized or permitted at law or in equity, and/or as set forth in the Condominium Act. In the event that a Unit Owner makes a partial payment of the delinquent assessment subsequent to the recording of the Claim of Lien but prior to the commencement of litigation, the Claim of Lien need not be amended to reflect such partial payment. The Complaint in any litigation resulting from the delinquent Condominium Assessment may be prepared pursuant to the existing Claim of Lien with a corresponding reduction (to the extent of such partial payments) in the amount demanded pursuant to said Complaint.

N. In general, the Condominium Board of Directors may take such action as it deems necessary to collect Condominium Assessments, and all other sums due, by personal action or by enforcing and foreclosing said Lien, and may settle and compromise the same if it appears that to do so is in the best interests of the Condominium Association.

O. The Condominium Association may bid at any sale in foreclosure and apply as a cash credit against its bid all sums due the Condominium Association covered by the Lien being enforced. The Condominium Association may also recover a money judgment for the unpaid Condominium Assessments without thereby waiving any lien rights.

P. Except as otherwise provided by Florida law, where a mortgagee of a first mortgage of record, or its successor or assignee, obtains title to a Condominium Parcel by foreclosure deed in lieu of foreclosure under such foreclosure suit, such acquirer of title, and his/her heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, is, with respect to unpaid assessments that became due prior to such acquisition of title, liable for the lesser of (a) the Unit's unpaid Common Expenses and regular periodic assessments which accrued or became due during the six (6) months preceding the acquisition of title and for which payment in full has not been received by the Condominium Association; or (b) one percent (1%) of the original mortgage debt; provided, however, such limitation shall not apply unless the Condominium Association was properly joined as a defendant in the foreclosure action which jointure shall not be required if the Condominium Association was dissolved on the date when the foreclosure complaint was filed or did not maintain an office or agent for service of process at a location which was known to or reasonably discoverable by the mortgagee. Any uncollectible share of Condominium Assessments shall be deemed a Common Expense and collectible from all Unit Owners, including such acquirer of title and his/her heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. Further, such acquirer of title, his/her heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, may not, during the period of its ownership of a Unit, whether or not the Unit is unoccupied, be excused from the payment of any Condominium Assessments applicable to the subject Unit and coming due during the period of such ownership, nor avoid such payment by waiver of the use of any Common Elements or by abandonment of the Unit against which the Condominium Assessment is levied.

Q. Any Unit Owner, purchaser, or mortgagee shall have the right to require from the Condominium Association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid Condominium Assessments assessed against the Unit Owner with respect to the Unit Owner's Unit within fifteen (15) days after delivering to the Condominium Association a written request from the Unit Owner, purchaser or mortgagee.
XVII. TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM

This Condominium may be voluntarily terminated as provided in this Article, and, in addition hereto, as provided in Article XXIII hereof. Mortgagees of individual Units shall have the right, upon written notice to the Condominium Association, to be advised in writing of any proposed termination of the Condominium. If the proposed voluntary termination of this Condominium is submitted to a meeting (hereinafter "Termination Meeting") of the membership of the Condominium Association, and within sixty (60) days of said Termination Meeting the voluntary termination of this Condominium is approved in writing by the votes of Voting Representatives representing at least three-fourths (3/4) of all of the Units in the Condominium and by all the mortgagees owning recorded liens against one or more of the Units owned by "Approving Unit Owners" (defined below), then the Condominium Association and the "Approving Unit Owners" (being all of the Unit Owners represented by Voting Representatives approving the termination) shall have an option (hereinafter the "Option") to purchase all of the Units owned by the "Nonapproving Unit Owners" (being all of the Unit Owners represented by Voting Representatives not approving the termination), which Option must be exercised, if at all, within a period expiring one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of the Termination Meeting and shall within ten (10) days after the purchase of said Units terminate this Condominium. All of the Units owned by the Nonapproving Unit Owners must be purchased in accordance with this Article XVII, as a condition precedent to the termination of the Condominium under this Article. The Option and subsequent termination of this Condominium shall be exercised upon the following terms:

A. Exercise of Option: Written notice of the decision to exercise the Option, executed by all of the Approving Unit Owners, shall be delivered by certified or registered mail, to each of the Nonapproving Unit Owners. Such delivery shall be deemed the exercise of the Option. If not exercised within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of the Termination Meeting, the Option arising out of said Termination Meeting shall be deemed to be terminated.

B. Price: The sale price for each Condominium Unit to be purchased hereunder shall be the fair market value of the Unit as determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the exercise of the Option. In the absence of agreement as to price, it shall be determined by an appraiser mutually agreed upon by the Approving Unit Owners and the Nonapproving Unit Owner, or, if no appraiser can be agreed upon within a fifteen (15) day period commencing upon notice from either party, by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two (2) appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the Unit; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expenses of appraisal (and/or arbitration) and closing costs (which shall consist of recording costs of the deed and any satisfaction of mortgage, documentary stamp tax on the deed, title insurance premium and any prepayment penalty under any note or mortgage of record against the Unit) shall be paid by the Approving Unit Owners.
C. Payment. The purchase price shall be paid in U.S. cash.

D. Closing. The sale shall be closed at the Condominium within sixty (60) days following the determination of the sale price. Title shall be conveyed by special warranty deed, subject to all matters of record; provided, however, that the Nonapproving Unit Owner, prior to or at closing, shall satisfy all liens of record against the Unit, and shall not take any action subsequent to the Termination Meeting that would impair the title to the Unit. The closings on all Units hereunder shall take place simultaneously. In the event any Unit ('delayed unit') cannot be closed on for any reason, the closings as to the balance of the Units shall be delayed until the closing on the delayed Unit can take place. In the event that the simultaneous closings of all such Units hereunder have not occurred for any reason within fifteen (15) months from the date of the Termination Meeting, then each and every Option arising out of said Termination Meeting shall be deemed to be automatically terminated. In such event the Unit Owners shall not be precluded from terminating the Condominium in the future under this Article.

E. Certificate. The termination of the Condominium shall be evidenced by a Certificate of the Association executed by its President (or Vice President) and Secretary (or Assistant Secretary) and all Approving Unit Owners, certifying the fact of the termination, which shall become effective upon the Certificate being recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

F. Shares of Unit Owners After Termination. After termination of the Condominium the Approving Unit Owners shall own the Condominium Property and all assets of the Condominium Association as tenants in common in undivided shares that shall be in proportion to the undivided shares in the Common Elements appurtenant to their respective Units prior to termination so that the sum total of the ownership shall equal one hundred percent (100%). All liens against an Approving Unit Owner's Unit shall be transferred to the undivided share in the Condominium Property attributable to the Unit originally encumbered by the liens, in its same priority.

G. Exclusive Rights Extinguished by Termination. The exclusive rights of use of the Limited Common Elements hereunder shall be extinguished by virtue of the termination of the Condominium.

H. Specific Performance. Any and all rights and obligations under this Article may be enforced by an action for Specific Performance.

XVIII. EQUITABLE RELIEF. In the event of the destruction of all or a substantial part of the Condominium Property, and in the event the property is not repaired, reconstructed, or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, any Unit Owner or the Condominium Association shall have the right to petition a court having jurisdiction in and for Broward County, Florida, for equitable relief which may, but need not necessarily, include a termination of the Condominium.
XIX. LIENS

In the event a lien against two (2) or more Units becomes effective, each Unit Owner thereof may release the Unit Owner's Unit from the lien by exercising any of the rights of a property owner under Chapter 713, Florida Statutes (if applicable), or by payment of the proportionate amount attributable to the Unit Owner's Condominium Parcel. Upon such payment, it shall be the duty of the lienor to release the lien of record for such Condominium Parcel as provided in §718.121 of the Condominium Act.

XX. MAINTENANCE OF COMMUNITY INTERESTS

In order to maintain a community of congenial residents who are financially responsible and thus protect the value of the Units, the transferring, leasing or mortgaging of Units by any Unit Owner other than the Declarant shall be subject to the following provisions so long as the Condominium exists, which provisions each Unit Owner covenants to observe:

A. Transfers Subject to Approval

(1) Sale. No Unit Owner may dispose of a Unit or any interest therein by sale without approval of the Condominium Association.

(2) Lease. No Unit Owner may dispose of a Unit or any interest therein by lease without approval of the Condominium Association.

(3) Gift. If any Unit Owner shall acquire title to a Unit, or any other interest therein, by gift, the continuance of the Unit Owner's ownership of the Unit shall be subject to the approval of the Condominium Association.

(4) Devise or Inheritance. If any Unit Owner shall acquire title to a Unit, or any other interest therein, by devise or inheritance, the continuance of the Unit Owner's ownership of the Unit shall be subject to the approval of the Condominium Association.

(5) Other Transfers. If any Unit Owner shall acquire title by any manner not heretofore considered in the foregoing subsections, the continuance of the Unit Owner's ownership of the Unit (or any interest therein) shall be subject to the approval of the Condominium Association.

B. Notice to Condominium Association

(1) Sale. A Unit Owner intending to sell the Unit Owner's Unit, or any interest therein, shall give the Condominium Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Condominium Association may reasonably require. As part of the information to be provided, the Condominium Association shall be entitled to interview the intended purchaser at the principal office of the Condominium Association. Such notice, at the Unit Owner's option may include a demand by the Unit Owner that the Condominium Association furnish a purchaser if the proposed purchaser is not approved; provided, however, that this demand shall not be made unless (i) a bona fide offer has been made by the proposed purchaser, (ii) the notice to the Association is accompanied by a copy of the bona fide offer, and (iii) occupancy by the proposed purchaser would not otherwise violate any provisions of the Condominium Documents. A "bona fide offer" is defined as an offer in writing binding upon the proposed purchaser and containing all the pertinent terms of such sale.

(2) Lease. A Unit Owner intending to lease the Unit Owner's Unit or any interest therein, shall give to the Condominium Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lessee and such other information as the Condominium Association may reasonably require. As part of the information to be provided, the Condominium Association shall be entitled to interview the intended lessee at the principal office of the Condominium Association.

(3) Gift; Devise; Inheritance; Other Transfers. A Unit Owner who has obtained title to the Unit Owner's Unit, or any interest therein, by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not heretofore considered, shall give to the Condominium Association notice of the acquiring of such title (or any interest therein), together with such information concerning the Unit Owner as the Condominium Association may reasonably require, and a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the Unit Owner's title or interest. As part of the information to be provided, the Condominium Association shall be entitled to interview said Unit Owner at the principal office of the Condominium Association.

C. Approval by Condominium Association

(1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and all information required hereunder, the Condominium Association must either approve or disapprove the transaction. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by the President (or a Vice President) of the Condominium Association in recordable form, and shall be delivered to the purchaser for recording in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the purchaser).

(2) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, then within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice and all information required hereunder, the Condominium Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by the President (or a Vice President) of the Condominium Association, and shall be delivered to the lessee.

(3) Gift; Devise; Inheritance; Other Transfer. If the Unit Owner giving notice has acquired title to the Unit Owner's Unit, or any interest therein, by gift, devise, inheritance, or in any other manner not heretofore considered, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and all information required hereunder, the Condominium Association must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the Unit Owner's ownership of his unit. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by the President (or a Vice President) in recordable form, and shall be delivered to the Unit Owner for recording in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the Unit Owner).

D. Disapproval by the Condominium Association. If the Condominium Association shall disapprove a transfer of ownership or a lease of a Unit, the matter shall be disposed of in the following manner:

(1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, the Unit Owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing within thirty (30) days after the Condominium Association's receipt of the notice and all information required hereunder, and the sale shall not be made. If the sale is disapproved, and if the notice of sale given by the Unit Owner shall so properly demand hereunder, then within forty-five (45) days after receipt of such notice and information, the Condominium Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail to the Unit Owner, an agreement to purchase ("approved agreement") by a purchaser (which may be the Condominium Association or any other Person) approved by the Condominium Association who will purchase, and to whom the Unit Owner must sell, the Unit upon the following terms:

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms of the approved agreement shall be the same as those stated in the disapproved bona fide offer.

(b) The purchase price shall be paid in U.S. cash.

(c) The sale shall be closed within forty-five (45) days after the delivery or mailing by the Condominium Association of said approved agreement to the Unit Owner.

(d) A certificate of the Condominium Association executed by any officer of the Association in recordable form, approving the purchaser under the approved agreement, shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the purchaser).

(e) The approved agreement must be executed by the Unit Owner and returned to the Condominium Association within ten (10) days after the Unit Owner receives said approved agreement.

(f) If the Condominium Association shall fail to provide a purchaser upon the proper demand of the Unit Owner in the manner provided herein, or if a purchaser furnished by the Condominium Association shall default under the approved agreement, then notwithstanding the disapproval or default, the proposed sale initially proposed by the Unit
Owner shall be deemed to have been approved and the Condominium Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the purchaser).

(2) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, the Unit Owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing, within ten (10) days after the Condominium Association's receipt of the notice and all information required hereunder, and the lease shall not be made. Approval of a proposed tenant by the Condominium Association may not be unreasonably withheld.

(3) Gifts, Devise, Inheritance; Other Transfers. If the Unit Owner giving notice has acquired title to the Unit Owner's Unit (or any interest thereon) by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner not heretofore considered, the Unit Owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing within thirty (30) days after the Condominium Association's receipt of the notice and all information required hereunder; in such event, within forty-five (45) days after receipt from the Unit Owner of the notice and information required to be furnished hereunder, the Condominium Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail to the Unit Owner, an agreement to purchase ("approved contract") by a purchaser (which may be the Condominium Association or any other Person) approved by the Condominium Association who will purchase, and to whom the Unit Owner must sell the Unit upon the following terms:

(a) The sale price shall be the fair market value of the Condominium Unit determined by agreement between the seller and purchaser within twenty (20) days from the delivery or mailing by the Condominium Association of the approved contract. In the absence of such agreement, the sale price shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two (2) appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the Unit; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(b) The purchase price shall be paid in U.S. cash.

(c) The sale shall close within forty-five (45) days following the determination of the sale price.

(d) A certificate of the Condominium Association, executed by its President (or a Vice President) in recordable form, approving the purchaser shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the purchaser).

(e) The approved contract must be executed by the Unit Owner and returned to the Condominium Association within ten (10) days after the Unit Owner receives said approved contract.
(f) If the Condominium Association shall fail to provide a purchaser as herein required, or if a purchaser furnished by the Condominium Association shall default under the approved contract, then notwithstanding the disapproval or default, such ownership of the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Condominium Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County (at the expense of the Unit Owner).

E. Exceptions. The foregoing provisions of this Article XX shall not apply to a transfer to, or purchase by, an Institutional Mortgagee which acquires title as a result of owning a mortgage upon the Unit concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer or sale by an Institutional Mortgagee. Neither shall the foregoing provisions of this Article XX require the approval of a purchaser who acquires title to a Unit at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding which is provided by law, such as, but not limited to, execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale. Neither shall the foregoing provisions of this Article XX apply to the sale or other transfer of a Unit by or to Declarant, by or to the Condominium Association, provided, however, that neither the Declarant, nor any Units owned by Declarant, shall be exempt from the approval requirements for the leasing of Units under this Article.

F. Unauthorized Transactions. Any sale, lease or other transfer, which is not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Article XX shall be void unless subsequently approved by the Condominium Association.

G. Specific Performance. In addition to all other remedies provided for under this Declaration, the rights and obligations under this Article XX may be enforced by an action for specific performance.

H. Transfer Fees. The Association shall be entitled to charge the Unit Owner seeking the approval under this Article XX a transfer fee in an amount set from time to time by the Board of Directors, but in no event may such transfer fee exceed the maximum amount allowed under §718.112(2)(i) of the Condominium Act.

I. Security Deposit. The Association may require, as a condition to approving a lease hereunder, that the lessee deposit a security deposit (in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month’s rent) into an escrow account maintained by the Association, in accordance with the provisions of §718.112(2)(i) of the Condominium Act.

XXI. CONTROL

A. Unit Owners other than the Declarant shall be entitled to elect no less than a majority of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association in the manner provided in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Condominium Association.
B. If the Declarant holds Units for sale in the ordinary course of business including without limitation, Units as to which Declarant regains title after a mortgage foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the Declarant:

1. Assessment of the Declarant as a Unit Owner for capital improvements; or

2. Any action by the Condominium Association that would be detrimental to the sales of Units by the Declarant. However, an increase in assessments for Common Expenses without discrimination against the Declarant shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sales of Units.

XXII. USE AND OCCUPANCY RESTRICTIONS

The following general use and occupancy restrictions applicable to the Condominium Property are in addition to, and without limitation upon, all other restrictions as more particularly set forth in the Condominium Documents, including, without limitation, the Bylaws of the Condominium Association and Rules and Regulations adopted by the Condominium Association. In the event of any conflict between the following and the Condominium Association Bylaws or Rules and Regulations, the following shall control.

A. Residential Use. Each Unit shall be used solely and exclusively for residential purposes, unless elsewhere specifically provided herein.

B. Supervision. Children under twelve (12) years of age will be the direct responsibility of their parents or legal guardians, including full supervision of them while within the Condominium Property and including full compliance by them of the Condominium Documents. Children are not to play in Common Element halls, stairways, or lobby, or interfere with the operation of the elevators. Owners or Condominium-approved lessees shall accompany all children under twelve (12) years of age when they use the swimming pool, beach, tennis court or other recreational areas of the Condominium and said children shall be required to comply with the directions of pool and/or beach attendants (if any) or the manager. Temporary revocation of pool or beach privileges for disobedience or unacceptable conduct may be imposed against said children.

C. Leasing. No Condominium Unit may be leased for a period of less than thirty-one (31) days or more than three (3) years. In addition, no Condominium Unit may be leased more than one (1) time in any consecutive twelve (12) month period. No part of a Unit may be rented separate and apart from the Unit in its entirety, and no transient tenants may be accommodated. All leases of Units shall provide that the lessee shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Condominium Documents, and that any failure by the lessee to comply with such terms and conditions shall constitute a material breach of the lease. All leases shall be subject to Article XX herein. During the term of any such lease, the leasing Unit Owner shall not have use of the Unit Owner’s Unit, the Common Elements, or the Condominium Property except as a guest pursuant to rules and regulations duly adopted by the Condominium Association.

D. Entity or Multiple Owners. In the event that a Unit is owned by an entity or is owned pursuant to a form of multiple ownership involving more than four (4) legal or beneficial owners, such entity or multiple owners shall designate to the Condominium Association the individual persons each year who will be entitled to utilize the Condominium Property as a Unit Owner. Each such individual person shall be subject to the same rules, regulations, and restrictions, as are Unit Owners, and must be individually approved by the Condominium Association.

E. Floors. If any Owner has a tile, marble, wood or other hard-surface uncarpeted floor in the Unit Owner’s Unit, the Unit must be soundproofed by Owner so that it does not disturb other Unit Owners.

F. Nuisances. No nuisances shall be allowed on the Condominium Property nor any use or practice which is the source of annoyance to Unit Owners, or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper residential use of the Units. All parts of the Condominium Property shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition and no rubbish, refuse or garbage shall be allowed to accumulate or any fire hazard allowed to exist. No Unit Owner shall permit any use of his Unit or of the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

G. Solicitation. No Unit Owner may actively engage in any solicitation for commercial purposes on the Condominium Property, nor shall any solicitor of a commercial nature be allowed on the Condominium Property without the prior written consent of the Condominium Association.

H. Lawful Use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium Property or any part thereof; and all valid laws, ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed.

I. Pets. No pets except fish, two (2) birds, and either (i) two (2) domestic household dogs or (ii) two (2) domestic household cats or (iii) one (1) domestic household dog and one (1) domestic household cat or (iv) two (2) domestic household dogs and one (1) domestic household cat by the initial owner of a Unit provided the cat shall not be replaced after its death or (v) one (1) domestic household dog or (vi) one (1) domestic household cat, shall be permitted to be kept in a Unit, and permitted pets shall be kept only under the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Directors; provided however, that no pet shall be kept, bred or maintained for any commercial purpose, and further provided that any pet causing or creating a nuisance or unreasonable disturbance shall be permanently removed from the Condominium Property upon three (3) days written notice from the Board of Directors. Pets shall not be permitted upon the Common Elements except pursuant to Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Directors. Pets shall use only the service elevators and shall not use the front lobby entrance to the Condominium Building. Unless in vehicles, pets shall exit and enter through the garage pedestrian doors. Pets may only be walked on the right-of-way of South Ocean Boulevard and on the utility easement over the southerly ten (10) feet of the Property. The Unit Owner shall indemnify the Condominium Association and the Declarant and hold them harmless from and against any loss or liability of any kind or character whatsoever arising from said Unit Owner’s having any pet upon the Condominium Property. Lessees and guests are not permitted to bring or keep any pet upon the Condominium Property. Pets can only be taken out of the Condominium Building through the garage and must be walked only on the right-of-way along South Ocean Boulevard and on said utility easement and pets shall not be allowed anywhere else on the Condominium Property. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Declaration to the contrary, the Declaration shall not be amended to repeal or change this Paragraph I in any way for the ten (10) year period beginning on the date this Declaration is recorded in the Public Records of the County, and no such amendment shall (1) affect the status of any pet lawfully kept in a Unit at the time of the Amendment’s adoption or (2) affect the right of any Unit Owner who has purchased the Unit Owner’s Unit from the Declarant to keep a pet or pets in conformance with this Paragraph I as it existed prior to such amendment.

J. Hallways. No furnishings shall be placed in any Common Element hallway or elevator lobby on any floor of the Condominium Building which contains Units without the prior consent of Declarant, its successors or assigns, for the five (5) year period beginning on the date this Declaration is recorded in the Public Records of the County, and thereafter without prior approval of the Board of Directors.

K. Commercial Vehicles. There shall be no overnight parking of commercial vehicles on the Condominium Property except commercial vehicles associated with the construction, maintenance, or marketing of the Condominium or the Units therein, and authorized to so park by Declarant, its successors and assigns.

L. General Limitation. No Person shall use the Condominium Property, or any part thereof, in any manner contrary to the Condominium Documents. The Condominium Property shall be used for the purposes for which intended.

M. Rules and Regulations. Reasonable Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the Condominium Property may be made and amended from time to time by the Board of Directors in the manner provided by the Condominium Bylaws. Copies of such Rules and Regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished by the Board of Directors to any Unit Owner upon request. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, for so long as Declarant owns any unit in the Condominium, no Rules or Regulations shall be made, amended, or repealed without Declarant’s approval.
N. No Interference With Declarant. No Unit Owner or any other Person shall, in any way, interfere with the construction, marketing, sale or rental of any Unit by Declarant.

O. Declarant's Rights. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, for so long as Declarant owns any Unit in the Condominium, the Declarant may make such use of the unsold Units and the Common Elements as may be deemed beneficial by Declarant for purposes of constructing, improving, marketing, selling, or renting such Units, including, but not limited to, the maintenance of a sales office, the showing of the Condominium Property, and the display of signs.

P. Proviso. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the Use and Occupancy Restrictions in Paragraphs C and D of this Article XXII shall not apply to Units owned by Declarant, except that the minimum lease term of thirty-one (31) days shall apply, and the approval requirements for the leasing of Units under Article XX herein shall apply.

XXIII. INSURANCE

The insurance, other than title insurance, which shall be carried upon the Condominium Property and the property of the Unit Owners shall be governed by the following provisions:

A. Authority to Purchase. All insurance policies upon the Condominium Property shall be purchased by the Association for the benefit of the Association and the Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and provisions shall be made for the issuance of certificates of or mortgagee endorsements to such insurance for the mortgagees of Unit Owners. Such policies and endorsements shall be deposited with the Association. Unit Owners may obtain insurance coverage at their own expense upon their personal property and for their personal liability and living expenses; every insurance policy issued to a Unit Owner shall provide that the coverage afforded by such policy is excess over the amount recoverable under any other policy covering the same property without rights of subrogation against the Association. All policies purchased by the Association must be written by insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of Florida, and with offices or agents in Florida.

B. Coverage.

(1) Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the land, including Units, and all personal property of the Association, are to be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors, and all such insurance must be obtained, if possible, from the same company. Such coverage shall provide protection against:

(a) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, and flood disaster insurance (if available). Flood insurance need not be acquired as to those portions of the Condominium Building(s) not reasonably susceptible to flooding.

(b) Such other risks as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use, including, but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief.

(2) Public Liability. In such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors with cross liability endorsements to cover liability of the Unit Owners as a group to a Unit Owner.

(3) Worker's Compensation. As shall be necessary to meet the requirements of law.

(4) Association Insurance. Such other insurance as the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may determine from time to time to be in the best interest of the Association and the Unit Owners, including Directors' Liability Insurance.

(5) Hazard Policies. All hazard policies issued to protect the Condominium Building(s) shall be in accordance with the Condominium Act, and in particular §718.111(11)(b) thereof.

C. Premiums. Premiums for insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association, and shall be deemed to be Common Expenses.

D. Insured. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the Unit Owners and their mortgagees as their interest may appear and may provide that all proceeds covering casualty losses shall be paid to any state or national bank in Broward or Palm Beach Counties, with trust powers, as may be approved and designated insurance trustee by the Board of Directors, which trustee is herein referred to as the "Insurance Trustee"; provided, however, that in the event that insurance proceeds are in excess of $100,000.00, all of such proceeds shall be paid to the Insurance Trustee. All insurance policies shall require written notification to each Institutional Mortgagee not less than ten (10) days in advance of cancellation of any insurance policy insuring the Condominium Property.

The Insurance Trustee (if applicable) shall not be liable for payments of premiums, nor for the renewal or sufficiency of the policies, nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee (if applicable) shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid, and hold same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein and for the benefit of the Unit Owners and their mortgagees in the following shares, but which shares need not be set forth in the records of the Insurance Trustee.
(1) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of Common Elements shall be held in as many undivided shares as there are Units in the Condominium, the shares of each Unit Owner being the same as his share in the Common Elements, as same are stated herein.

(2) Units. Proceeds on account of Units shall be held in the following undivided shares:

(a) Partial Destruction. When the Condominium Building is to be restored, for the Owners of damaged Units in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each Unit Owner:

(b) Total Destruction. When the Condominium Building is to be restored, for the Owners of all Units in the Condominium Building in proportion to their share of the Common Elements appurtenant to their Unit.

(c) Mortgagee. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a Unit, the share of the Unit Owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the Unit Owner as their interests appear. No mortgagee shall have any right to participate in the determination as to whether or not improvements will be restored after casualty.

E. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee (if applicable) or the Association shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners of such proceeds in the following manner:

(1) Expense of the Trust. All expenses of the Insurance Trustee (if applicable) shall be first paid or provisions made therefor.

(2) Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the costs thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of such proceeds, remittances to Unit Owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a Unit and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

(3) Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided herein that the damages for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of such proceeds, remittances to Unit Owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a Unit and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

(4) Certificate. In making distribution to Unit Owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee (if applicable), or the Association, may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by the President (or Vice President) and Secretary (or Assistant Secretary) as to the names of the Unit Owners and their respective shares of the distribution.

(5) Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each Unit Owner to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association.

F. Reconstruction or Repair After Casualty

(1) Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one (1) Unit for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the Unit Owner, then the Unit Owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances, the responsibility of construction or repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

(2) Loss Less Than "Very Substantial". Where loss or damage is less than "very substantial" (as defined in (3) below), it shall be obligatory upon the Condominium Association and/or the Unit Owners (whichever is responsible) to repair, restore and rebuild the damage caused by said casualty. Where such loss or damage is less than "very substantial":

(a) The Condominium Board of Directors shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repairing and restoration.

(b) The insurance proceeds shall be disbursed by the Insurance Trustee (if applicable), or the Condominium Association, for the repair and restoration of the Condominium Property upon the written direction and approval of the Condominium Association as to the payee and the amount to be paid from said proceeds. All payees shall deliver paid bills, waivers and releases of construction liens to the Insurance Trustee (if applicable), or the Condominium Association, and shall further execute any Affidavit required by law, by the Condominium Association, or by the Insurance Trustee, and shall deliver same to the Insurance Trustee (if applicable), or to the Condominium Association.

(c) Subject to the foregoing, the Condominium Board of Directors shall have the right and obligation to negotiate and contract for the repair and restoration of the Condominium Property.

(d) In the event the insurance proceeds are sufficient to pay the cost of restoration and repair, or in the event the insurance proceeds are insufficient but additional funds are raised within ninety (90) days after the casualty so that sufficient funds are on hand to fully pay for such restoration and repair, then no mortgagee shall have the right to require the application of insurance proceeds to the payment of its loan unless (i) the provisions of the mortgage to the Institutional Mortgagee so require and/or (ii) the Condominium Board of Directors consents to such an application of proceeds by the Institutional Mortgagee.
(3) "Very Substantial" Damage. As used in this Declaration, or in any other context dealing with this Condominium, the term "very substantial" damage shall mean loss or damage whereby seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the total Units of the Condominium are rendered untenable, then:

(a) The Condominium Board of Directors shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repair and restoration.

(b) The Condominium Board of Directors shall ascertain as promptly as possible the net amount of insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair, as well as the estimated cost of restoration and repair.

(c) Thereupon, a membership meeting shall be called by the Condominium Board of Directors, to be held not later than sixty (60) days after the casualty, to determine the wishes of the membership with respect to the termination of the Condominium, subject to the following:

1. If the net insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair, together with funds advanced by Unit Owners to replace insurance proceeds paid over to their respective Institutional Mortgagees, are sufficient to cover the cost thereof so that no special charge is required, the Condominium Property shall be restored and repaired unless Voting Representatives representing at least three-fourths (3/4) of all Units in the Condominium vote in favor of termination of the Condominium, in which case the Condominium Property shall be removed from the provisions of the Condominium Act in accordance with §718.117, Florida Statutes, and there shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County an instrument terminating this Condominium, which instrument shall further set forth the facts affecting the termination and shall be certified by the Condominium Association and executed by its President and Secretary or other appropriate officers. The termination of the Condominium shall become effective upon the recording of said instrument and the Unit Owners shall, thereupon, become owners as tenants in common in the "property" (that is, the real, personal, tangible and intangible personal property, and any remaining improvements of the Condominium) and their undivided interest in the "property" shall be the same as their undivided interests in the Common Elements of this Condominium prior to its termination and the mortgages and liens upon Condominium Units shall become mortgages and liens upon the undivided interests of such tenants in common with the same priority as existed prior to the termination of the Condominium.

2. If the net insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair, together with funds advanced by Unit Owners to replace insurance proceeds paid over to their respective Institutional Mortgagees, are not sufficient to cover the costs thereof, so that a special charge will be required, the Condominium Property shall be restored and repaired unless Voting Representatives representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of all Units in the Condominium vote in favor of the termination of the Condominium, in which case the Condominium Property shall be removed from the provisions of the Condominium Act in accordance with §718.117, Florida
Statutes, and there shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County an instrument terminating this Condominium, which instrument shall further set forth the facts affecting the termination and shall be certified by the Condominium Association and executed by its President (or Vice President) and Secretary (or Assistant Secretary) or other appropriate officers. The termination of the Condominium shall become effective upon the recording of said instrument and the Unit Owners shall, thereupon, become owners as tenants in common in the "property" (that is, the real, personal, tangible and intangible personal property, and any remaining improvements of the Condominium) and their undivided interest in the "property" shall be the same as their undivided interests in the Common Elements of this Condominium prior to its termination and the mortgages and liens upon Condominium Units shall become mortgages and liens upon the undivided interests of such tenants in common with the same priority as existed prior to the termination of the Condominium. In the event that the Unit Owners do not vote to terminate the Condominium, the special charges (discussed in the following sentence) shall be deemed approved, and the Condominium Association shall immediately levy such special charges, and thereupon the Condominium Association shall proceed to cause such repairs and restoration to be accomplished, subject to the provisions of this Article XXIII. The Unit Owners who own the damaged Units, and/or all Unit Owners in the case of damage to Common Elements, shall be charged sufficient amounts by the Association to provide funds to pay the estimated costs. Such charges against the Unit Owners for damage to Units shall be in proportion to the cost of reconstruction and repair of their respective Units. Such charges on account of damage to Common Elements shall be in proportion to the Owner's share in the Common Elements. The Association shall have lien rights against the subject Unit for any unpaid charges (together with reasonable interest thereon, and attorney's fees incurred by the Association in connection therewith) which may be enforced in the same manner as liens for unpaid Assessments herein. The special charges shall be delivered by the Condominium Association to the Insurance Trustee (if applicable) and added to said Trustee or by the Condominium Association, as the case may be, to the proceeds available for the repair and restoration of the Condominium Property. The proceeds shall be disbursed for the repair and restoration of the Condominium Property as provided above. To the extent that any insurance proceeds are paid over to any mortgagee and in the event it is determined not to terminate the Condominium and to vote such special charges, the Unit Owner of the Unit subject to the mortgage held by such mortgagee, shall be obligated for such sum in addition to the special charge.

(d) In the event any dispute shall arise as to whether or not "very substantial" damage has occurred, it is agreed that such a finding made by the Condominium Board of Directors shall be binding upon all Unit Owners.

(4) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of repair and restoration shall be from the insurance proceeds, and if there is a balance in the funds held by the Condominium Association or by the Insurance Trustee (if applicable) after payment of all costs of the repair and restoration, such balance shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of the fund in the manner elsewhere stated herein.
(5) Funds Paid to a Mortgage. To the extent that any insurance proceeds are required to be paid over to any mortgagee, the Owner of the Unit subject to the mortgage held by said mortgagee shall be obligated to replace the funds so paid over; the Association shall have lien rights against the subject Unit for such funds (together with reasonable interest thereon, and attorney's fees incurred by the Association in connection therewith) which may be enforced in the same manner as liens for unpaid Assessments herein.

(6) Plans and Specifications. Any repair and restoration must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original Condominium (or as the improvements were last constructed, or according to the plans approved by the Condominium Board of Directors, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If any material or substantial change is contemplated, the approval of all Unit Owners and Institutional Mortgagees, respectively, shall also be required.

(7) Association's Power to Compromise Claim. The Condominium Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each Unit Owner for the purpose of compromising and settling claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Condominium Association, and to execute and deliver releases therefor upon the payment of claims.

G. Additional Provisions. The following provisions, to the extent not provided above, shall also be included in the Condominium Association’s insurance policies:

(1) A waiver of the right of subrogation against Unit Owners individually (if possible); that the insurance is not prejudiced by any act or neglect of individual Unit Owners which are not authorized to represent the Condominium Association; and that the policy is primary in the event the Unit Owner has other insurance covering the same loss.

(2) Loss against fire and other perils, steam boiler coverage of at least $50,000.00 if there is a steam boiler, and coverage against all other perils customarily covered under the standard "all risk" endorsement.

XXIV. EMINENT DOMAIN AND CONDEMNATION PROCEDURE

A. If a Unit is acquired by eminent domain or condemnation proceedings, or if part of a Unit is acquired by eminent domain or condemnation leaving the Unit Owner with a remnant which may not practically or lawfully be used for any purpose permitted by the Condominium Documents, then, upon acquisition, that Unit's entire Common Element interest and Common Expense Liability shall be automatically reallocated to the remaining Units in the Condominium in proportion to the respective interests and liabilities of those Units prior to the taking, and the remnant of the Unit shall be deemed to be a part of the Common Elements, and the Condominium Association shall promptly prepare, execute, and record an amendment to this Declaration reflecting these matters. All votes in the Condominium Association and membership of the Unit Owner(s) in the Condominium Association as to that Unit shall then be cancelled.
B. Except as provided in this Article, if part of a Unit is acquired by eminent domain or condemnation which reduces the size of a Unit but the remaining portion of which may be practically or lawfully used by the Unit Owner for any purpose permitted by the Condominium Documents as shall be determined in the sole opinion of the Condominium Association, the award shall be used first to make such Unit habitable, as shall be determined in the sole opinion of the Condominium Association, with said Unit Owner being responsible for any additional funds required in excess of the award. That Unit's Common Elements interest, and Common Expense liability shall not be changed as a result of the condemnation.

C. If part of the Common Elements is acquired by eminent domain or condemnation, the award shall be used to render the remaining portion of the Common Elements usable in the manner approved by the Condominium Association, provided that if the cost of such work shall exceed the balance of the funds from the awards for the taking, the work shall be approved and undertaken in the manner elsewhere required for capital improvements to the Condominium Property. The Condominium Association shall divide any portion of the award not used for any restoration or repair of the remaining Common Elements among the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Element interests after the taking, or in such other manner as this Declaration may provide. If there is an institutional First Mortgage or other approved mortgage on a Unit, the distribution shall be paid jointly to the Unit Owner and the Institutional First Mortgagees or other approved mortgagees of the Unit.

D. In circumstances not covered by this Declaration or by applicable law, a majority of the Condominium Board of Directors may deal with the condemnation in such reasonable manner as it determines to be appropriate under the circumstances.

XXV. PARKING

A. There will be one hundred eighty-three (183) parking spaces in the Condominium, which will consist of one hundred sixty (160) garage parking spaces and twenty-three (23) uncovered parking spaces as designated in Exhibit No. "A." The exclusive right to use at least two (2) garage parking spaces shall be assigned by Declarant with respect to each Unit. A parking space in which the exclusive right of use thereof has been assigned hereunder shall be deemed to be an "assigned parking space." An assigned parking space shall be a Limited Common Element appurtenant to the Unit with respect to which the exclusive right of use of the said space was assigned. Unassigned spaces will be used by guests, visitors, and Declarant, its successors and assigns, after Declarant has sold all of Declarant's Units, so long as Declarant, its successors and assigns shall have the right hereunder to conduct sales and marketing activities in the Building.

B. The exclusive right to use a garage parking space may be assigned by a Unit Owner owning such right to another Unit Owner; however, each Unit Owner must retain the exclusive right to use at least one (1) assigned parking space. Such assignment shall be in writing, and shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County.
C. All parking spaces in the Condominium shall be maintained by the Condominium Association in the same manner as the Common Elements in the Condominium.

D. No automobile or other vehicle shall be parked other than in the space designated for parking in the parking area.

XXVI. CONDOMINIUM MANAGER

The Condominium Association has the right, but not the obligation, to employ a full-time or part-time Condominium Manager to manage the Condominium Property. It is contemplated that the Manager shall be provided with a rent-free suite located on the second floor of the Condominium Building and shall have such duties as determined by the Board of Directors. The Condominium Association shall determine whether or not it wishes to enter into a separate management agreement with said Manager.

XXVII. REMEDIES FOR VIOLATION

A. Each Unit Owner and the Condominium Association shall be governed by, and shall comply with the provisions of the Condominium Act and Condominium Documents. Subject to the provisions of the Condominium Documents, actions for damages or for injunctive relief, or both, for failure to comply with these provisions may be brought by the Condominium Association or by a Unit Owner(s) against:

(1) The Condominium Association;

(2) A Unit Owner(s).

B. The Condominium Association may impose a fine or charge on any Unit Owner who does damage to the Common Elements, and may charge such Unit Owner for all expenses incurred by the Condominium Association to repair or replace the Common Elements so damaged. For the purpose of this Article, whenever a family member, invitee, licensee, guest or any lessee of a Unit Owner causes such damage to the Common Elements, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have caused such damage.

C. The Condominium Association may levy a fine against an Owner of a Unit or its occupant, licensee or invitee for failure to abide by any provision of the Condominium Documents, in accordance with the procedure for levying fines as set forth in the Bylaws.

D. The Condominium Association and Unit Owners shall enter into mandatory non-binding arbitration of disputes when and as required by the Condominium Act, however.

E. Anything in this Article to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any Condominium Assessment or other charges due hereunder are not timely made, the Condominium Association may pursue any of its remedies (except the levying of fines, which must be in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Bylaws) without complying with the terms of this Article.

F. The prevailing party in any action brought under this Declaration (or any Exhibit hereto) or the Condominium Act shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by said prevailing party in the trial court, on all appeals, and in all post-judgment actions.

G. Except as provided, however, the remedies provided for herein shall not preclude an aggrieved party from seeking any other available remedies in law or in equity in the event of any violation of the Condominium Documents or the Condominium Act.

H. Each and all of the covenants, conditions, restrictions and agreements contained in the Condominium Documents, shall be deemed and construed to be continuing. The extinguishment of any right or power herein contained shall not impair or affect any of the covenants, conditions, restrictions or agreements so far as any future or other breach is concerned. Failure to enforce any restriction, covenant, condition, obligation, reservation, right, power or charge in the Condominium Documents, however long continued, shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to enforce same as needed. Failure to enforce same shall not give rise to any liability on the part of the Declarant or the Condominium Association with respect to parties aggrieved by such failure.

I. Declarant, the Condominium Association and Unit Owners recognize that the condominium form of ownership is complex and that the Condominium Documents and the Condominium Act are lengthy and technical in nature and may be susceptible to misinterpretation if isolated provisions are the subject of review, and that in the event of any litigation under the Condominium Documents or Condominium Act with respect to the Condominium, a judge, rather than a jury, would be the most efficient and best qualified trier of fact. ACCORDINGLY, AND NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS, DECLARANT, THE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, AND EACH UNIT OWNER BY VIRTUE OF BECOMING A UNIT OWNER PURSUANT AND UNDER THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THAT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING BASED ON, OR ARISING OUT OF THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS OR THE CONDOMINIUM ACT.

XXVIII. DESIGNATED MORTGAGEE RIGHTS

Barnett Bank, N.A., formerly known as Barnett Bank of Broward County, N.A., a national bank, its successors and/or assigns (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Barnett"), is the Institutional Mortgagee which will hold mortgages on Units owned by the Declarant to be created on the Property pursuant to this Declaration of Condominium. Barnett has required particular protections and rights unto itself as a condition to its granting financing to the Declarant for construction of the Condominium to be located on the Property. For purposes of this Article XXVIII a "Barnett Mortgage" shall mean and refer solely and exclusively to any mortgage entered into between Declarant (as mortgagor) and Barnett (as mortgagor) encumbering one or more Units in the Condominium. The following are such rights and protections which are hereby granted by the Declarant to Barnett, including its successors and assigns:

A. Waiver of Termination and Partition. So long as Barnett owns a Barnett Mortgage, or owns title to a Unit (and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage), all Unit Owners waive the right to terminate the Condominium pursuant to Article XVII, or any portion thereof, or to partition the Common Elements, except in the event of damage or destruction pursuant to Article XXIII of this Declaration of Condominium, or condemnation pursuant to Article XXIV of this Declaration of Condominium.

B. Approval of Association Dissolution. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article XVII of this Declaration of Condominium, so long as Barnett owns a Barnett Mortgage or owns title to a Unit (and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage), the Association may not be dissolved without the prior written consent of Barnett which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

C. Exclusivity of Rights. The foregoing rights granted to Barnett shall in no manner be construed to apply or be granted to any other Institutional Mortgagee or other mortgagee and this Article XXVIII is deemed to inure to the sole and exclusive benefit of Barnett, including its successors and assigns.

D. Barnett as Named Insured/Insurance Trustee. Whenever the Association is required to purchase and maintain a policy of insurance or bond, Barnett (or its designee) shall be named as an additional insured, as its interest may appear. So long as Barnett owns a Barnett Mortgage, or owns title to a Unit (and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage), the Board of Directors may not designate an Insurance Trustee without the prior approval of Barnett, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

E. Approval of Amendments. So long as Barnett owns a Barnett Mortgage, or owns title to a Unit (and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage), no amendment shall be made to this Declaration of Condominium which would mutually affect the rights or interests of Barnett, or which requires Barnett's approval pursuant to the requirements of the Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Association, without the prior written approval of Barnett, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

F. Enjoyment of Rights and Privileges. It is expressly understood and agreed that in the event that Barnett shall obtain title to any Unit, and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage, Barnett, at Barnett's sole option, shall succeed to all of the rights and privileges of Declarant hereunder, including specifically but without limitation, the rights contained in Articles
VIII, X and XI. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in order to exercise the foregoing option Barnett must record a notice in the Public Records of the County, stating its intent to succeed to rights and privileges of the Declarant hereunder, and referring to this Article.

G. Leasing. It is expressly understood and agreed that in the event that Barnett shall obtain title to any Unit, and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage, Paragraph C of Article XXII hereof shall not apply to Barnett; provided, however, that Barnett shall not lease a Unit for less than thirty-one (31) days.

H. Proviso. The terms of this Article XXVIII shall be in effect only for so long as Barnett either owns a Barnett Mortgage, or owns title to a Unit (and such title arises out of a Barnett Mortgage).

XXIX. MISCELLANEOUS

A. If any provision of the Condominium Documents, in whole or in part, or the application thereof, in any circumstance, is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the Condominium Documents, and of the application of any such provision in other circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

B. Except as specifically provided to the contrary in the Condominium Act, whenever notice is required to be given hereunder and unless otherwise specifically indicated in this Declaration, the same shall be in writing and hand delivered to a Unit Owner(s) or sent to the Unit Owner(s) by first class mail at the Unit Owner's place of residence in the Condominium (unless the Unit Owner has, by notice duly receipted for, specified a different address). Notices to the Condominium Association shall be delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, to 1700 South Ocean Boulevard, Pompano Beach, FL 33062, or to such other address as the Condominium Association may hereafter designate from time to time by notice in writing to all Unit Owners. Notices to Declarant shall be delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, to 1700 South Ocean Boulevard, Pompano Beach, Florida 33062, or to such other address as Declarant may hereafter designate from time to time by notice to all Unit Owners and to the Condominium Association. All notices shall be deemed and considered given when actually hand delivered or two (2) U.S. Postal Service working days if mailed with sufficient postage prepaid to carry the notice to its proper destination, except that notices of a change of address shall be deemed to have been given when received.

C. Captions and headings in this Declaration are inserted only for convenience and ease of reference and in no way define or limit the scope of this Declaration or any provision herein.

D. The provisions of the Condominium Documents shall be binding upon all parties who may become Unit Owners, by purchase or otherwise, and their heirs, personal representatives, administrators, successors and assigns, and shall constitute equitable servitudes.
upon each Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in the Common Elements. Each Unit Owner, by reason of having acquired ownership whether by purchase, gift, operation of law or otherwise, and each occupant of a Unit, by reason of his occupancy, shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that all of the provisions of the Condominium Documents are fair and reasonable in all material respects.

E. Nothing hereinabove set forth in this Declaration shall be construed as prohibiting the Declarant from removing, or authorizing the removal of, any party wall between any Condominium Units owned by the same Unit Owner in order that the said Units might be used together as one integral Unit. In such event, all Assessments, voting rights and the share of Common Elements shall be calculated as if such Units were as originally designated on the exhibits attached to this Declaration, notwithstanding the fact that several Units are used as one. It is the intent and purpose that the Unit Owner of such "combined" Units shall be treated as the Unit Owner of as many Units as have been so combined.

F. The real property submitted to Condominium Ownership hereunder is subject to, among other things, the conditions, limitations, restrictions and all other matters of record, applicable governmental land use regulations now existing or which may hereafter exist, easements for ingress and egress for pedestrian and vehicular purposes and easements for utility service and drainage, now existing or hereafter granted by the Declarant for the benefit of such Persons as the Declarant designates, and any other easements and/or encumbrances provided for herein. The Declarant's right to grant the foregoing easements shall be subject to said easements not structurally weakening the Condominium Building(s) and not unreasonably, permanently interfering with the enjoyment of the Condominium Property by the Unit Owners.

G. No time-share estates shall be created with respect to Units in this Condominium.

H. Notwithstanding the fact that the present provisions of the Condominium Act are incorporated by reference herein, the provisions of this Declaration and of the exhibits hereto shall be paramount where permissive variances are permitted.

I. No Unit Owner shall bring, or have any right to bring, any action for partition or for division of the Condominium Property prior to the termination of this Condominium, except as otherwise provided herein.

J. Should a lawsuit be instituted, the Unit Owners do hereby irrevocably appoint the Secretary of State of the State of Florida as their Agent for the acceptance of service of process should, at the time of such service of process, any such person not be residing in this Condominium, and service cannot be accomplished in any other reasonable fashion. The provisions hereof shall not be applicable to service upon the Declarant.
K. The provisions of the Condominium Documents shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purpose of creating a uniform plan of Condominium Ownership.

L. Where the provisions of the Condominium Documents set minimum standards in excess of the Condominium Act or other governmental restrictions, rules and regulations, the Condominium Documents shall prevail, if not otherwise prohibited by law.

M. This Declaration shall become effective upon its recordation in the Public Records of the County, and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

N. Whenever the context so permits, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the use of any gender shall be deemed to include all or no genders.

O. The Condominium Association shall not be responsible to any Institutional First Mortgagee or other approved mortgagee or lienor of any Unit pursuant to the Condominium Documents, and may assume the Unit is free of any such Institutional First Mortgages or other approved mortgages or liens, unless written notice of the existence of the same is received by the Condominium Association.

P. In addition to all other rights herein set forth, Institutional First Mortgagees shall have the right, upon prior written request to the Condominium Association to:

1. Examine the Condominium Association's books;

2. Receive notice of Condominium Association meetings and attend such meetings;

3. Receive notice of an alleged default by any Unit Owner, against whose Unit such Institutional First Mortgagee holds an Institutional First Mortgage, which is not cured within thirty (30) days of notice of default to such Unit Owner; and

4. Receive notice of any substantial damage or loss to any portion of the Condominium Property; and

5. Receive a copy of the financial report of actual receipts and expenditures of the Condominium Association for the year immediately preceding the date of acquisition of the Institutional First Mortgagee's interest in the Condominium Property.

Q. The development of CRISTELLE, A CONDOMINIUM may require from time to time the execution of certain documents required by the County or other governmental agencies or units. To the extent that said documents require the joinder and/or consent of any or all Unit Owners, each of said Unit Owners, by virtue of the Unit Owner's acceptance of a deed to the Unit Owner’s Unit, does irrevocably give and grant to the Declarant, or any of Declarant’s representatives individually, full power of attorney to execute said documents as the Unit Owner’s agent and in the Unit Owner’s place and stead. Each Unit Owner understands and acknowledges that the County or other governmental agencies and units shall have the full right and authority to rely on this subparagraph Q.

R. The failure of the Declarant and/or the Condominium Association to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions, covenants and conditions set forth in the Condominium Documents shall not be deemed a waiver of any rights or remedies held by either of these entities, and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent default or noncompliance with the said provisions, covenants and conditions.

S. In the event of any conflict, this Declaration shall take precedence over the Condominium Articles of Incorporation, the Condominium Bylaws and applicable Rules and Regulations of the Condominium Association; the Condominium Articles of Incorporation shall take precedence over the Condominium Bylaws and applicable Rules and Regulations; and the Condominium Bylaws shall take precedence over applicable Rules and Regulations.

XXX. DECLARANT’S RIGHTS AND VETO POWER

The Declarant hereby reserves for itself the following rights, which are in addition to all of the other rights of the Declarant:

(1) The right to create easements for itself, and any other Person it so designates, over any portion of the Condominium Property, as long as such easement shall not materially and permanently interfere with the uses for which the Units and the Common Elements are intended.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSE

Section 1. This Corporation has been organized as a not-for-profit corporation pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of operating and managing the Condominium pursuant to the Articles. The Condominium to be operated and managed by this Corporation shall be located upon those lands located in Broward County, Florida, described in Exhibit "A" which is annexed to the Declaration, as said Exhibit "A" may, from time to time, be amended.

Section 2. The Corporation was duly incorporated in the Office of the Secretary of State of Florida on the 13th day of November, 1995. A copy of those Articles is attached to the Declaration as Exhibit "B."

Section 3. These Bylaws shall be attached to the Declaration to be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, as Exhibit "C" thereto, and shall be considered a part thereof.
ARTICLE III
MEMBERS

Section 1. All of the record owners of legal title to Condominium Parcels in the Condominium shall be members of this Corporation. Upon recording of a deed, or by any other means which establishes a change of record title to a Condominium Unit, the new owner thereof shall, upon filing a copy of the instrument changing record title with the Secretary of the Corporation, become a member of this Corporation and the membership of the prior owner shall terminate.

Section 2. Condominium Unit Owners shall be entitled to a vote in the affairs of the Corporation as set forth in the Declaration, Articles and the Act.

Section 3. Except for the Declarant, no other person or legal entity shall be a member of the Corporation or vote in its affairs.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERS MEETING

Section 1. The first annual meeting of the members shall be held within one (1) year of the date of incorporation of the Corporation, and each subsequent regular annual meeting shall be held at a date and time determined by the Board of Directors each year thereafter. Meetings of the members shall be held at the place and at the time determined by the Board of Directors from time to time. At such meeting, the members shall elect Directors to serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified, or they resign or they are removed, whichever first occurs, and shall transact such other business as may be authorized by the members. All voting shall be by plurality. Cumulative voting is prohibited.

Section 2. A special meeting of the members, to be held at the same place as the annual meeting, or at such other place in Broward County, Florida, as may be set forth in the notice of said meeting, may be called at any time by the President or, in the President’s absence, by the Vice President, or by a majority of the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of the President, Vice President, or Directors to call such a meeting whenever so requested by members holding ten percent (10%) or more of the voting rights of the Corporation.

Section 3. Written notice of the time, place and agenda of all annual and special meetings shall be given (and posted) in accordance with the requirements of the Condominium Act. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, Unit Owners (through their respective Voting Representatives) may waive notice of specific meetings in writing (either before or after the meeting at issue), which waiver shall be filed with the Secretary, and may take action by written agreement without meetings, as long as such agreement is signed by members (through their respective Voting Representatives) having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action if the meeting were held.

Section 4. The President or, in his absence, the Vice President, shall preside at all annual and special meetings of the membership.

Section 5. A quorum for members' meetings shall consist of persons entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire membership present in person or by limited or general proxy in conformance with the Act. The written joint server or absentee ballot of any Unit Owner may not be utilized to establish a quorum when such joinder occurs subsequent to the meeting in issue. In the event that a quorum is not present, the members present (through their respective Voting Representatives), though less than a quorum, may adjourn the meeting to a future date. The time and place to which the meeting is adjourned shall be announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the Condominium, Property as required by the Act as soon thereafter as may be practical stating the time and place to which it is adjourned. The affirmative vote of a majority of the Voting Representatives at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the members unless the vote of a greater number is otherwise provided by the Act, the Articles, the Declaration, or these Bylaws. After a quorum has been established at a members' meeting, the subsequent withdrawal of, or refusal to vote by, members (through their respective Voting Representatives), so as to reduce the number of Voting Representatives entitled to vote at the meeting below the number required for a quorum, shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Section 6. Votes may be cast in person or by limited or general proxy subject to the requirements set forth in the Act, and the administrative rules adopted thereunder. Limited proxies shall be the only proxies permitted in those votes for which limited proxies are required by the Act; general proxies shall be permitted for all other votes. Provided, however, no proxies shall be used for the election of Directors except as permitted by the Act. All proxies shall be in writing, conform to the requirements of the Act and the rules enacted thereunder and shall be filed with the Secretary. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall any proxy be voted for a period longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Unit Owner executing it.

Section 7. Written ballots or voting machines shall be utilized when required by the Act or when secrecy is desired at the option of the chairman of the meeting.

Section 8. Unless otherwise precluded by applicable Florida Law, annual or special meetings of the members may be held at any time or place, without notice, with the written consent of all Voting Representatives.

Section 9. In the event that any Condominium Parcel is owned by more than one person or by a corporation, partnership or other entity, the owners of the same (or their administrator, executor, guardian or conservator, if applicable) shall execute and deliver to the Secretary of the Corporation a written certificate designating one of the record owners of legal title thereto, or other representative, as the "Voting Representative" for the Condominium Unit, who shall be authorized to vote on behalf of such Condominium Parcel. The certificate shall be valid until revoked by a subsequent certificate. Unless said certificate is filed with the Secretary of the Corporation prior to the time in which said vote is to be cast, the vote of such owner shall not be considered for the purpose of determining a quorum or for any other purpose.

In the event the approval or disapproval of the owner of a Condominium Unit is required upon any subject, whether or not the same is the subject at any meeting, said approval or disapproval shall be executed by the same person who would be entitled to cast the vote of such owner at any Corporation meeting.

Section 10. The officer or agent having charge of the books of the Corporation shall keep and maintain a complete list of Voting Representatives entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, which list shall be prepared and maintained in accordance with Florida law.

ARTICLE V
DIRECTORS

Section 1. The business affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall be elected annually by the members. The members, however, at any annual meeting after the Developer has relinquished control of the Corporation and in order to provide a continuity of experience, may vote to create classes of directorships having a term of one, two or three years so that a system of staggered terms will be initiated. Said Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three (3) persons nor more than five (5). The exact number of Directors is to be set at the annual meeting. Directors need not be members of the Corporation.
Provided, however, that until the Declarant elects in writing to terminate its control of the Condominium, all Directors shall be designated by the Declarant, subject to the rights of non-Declarant Unit Owners under Section 3 below. c. The election shall be by written ballot or voting machine and by a plurality of the votes cast. d. Vacancies in the Board occurring between annual meetings of members shall be filled in the manner provided in these Bylaws.

Section 3. The Declarant shall have the absolute right, at any time, in its discretion, to remove any member of the Board designated by the Declarant and replace any such person with another person to serve on the Board. Notice of such action shall be given to the Corporation.

When Unit Owners other than the Declarant own fifteen percent (15%) or more of the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Corporation, the Unit Owners other than the Declarant shall be entitled to elect no less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Unit Owners other than the Declarant shall be entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation three (3) years after fifty percent (50%) of the Units that will be operated ultimately by this Corporation have been conveyed to purchasers, or three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the Units that will be operated ultimately by this Corporation have been conveyed to purchasers, or when all of the Units that will be operated ultimately by this Corporation have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Declarant in the ordinary course of business, or when some of the Units have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Declarant in the ordinary course of business, or seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration of Condominium, whichever first occurs.

The Declarant shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) member of the Board of Directors as long as the Declarant holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the Units in the Condominium.

Within seventy-five (75) days after Unit Owners other than the Declarant are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors, the Corporation shall call, giving not less than sixty (60) days' notice of, a meeting of the Unit Owners for this purpose. Such meeting may be called and the notice given by any Unit Owner if the Corporation fails to do so.

At the time that Unit Owners other than the Declarant elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the Declarant shall relinquish control of the Corporation and the Unit Owners shall accept such control. Simultaneously with the foregoing, or when all the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Corporation have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Declarant in the ordinary course of business the Declarant shall deliver to the Corporation all property of the Unit Owners and of the Corporation held by or controlled by the Declarant, if any, including, but not limited to, if applicable, those items provided for in §718.301(4) of the Act. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent the Declarant, at its option, from transferring control of the Association to Unit Owners other than the Declarant before the occurrence of the events described herein, in which case such control shall be accepted by the Unit Owners.

Section 4. If the Declarant holds Units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the Declarant:

(a) Assessment of the Declarant as a Unit Owner for capital improvements.

In addition, except in an emergency, adequate notices of meetings identifying agenda items shall be posted conspicuously on the Condominium Property at least forty-eight (48) continuous hours in advance of the meeting for the attendance of the Unit Owners. Notice of any meeting where nonemergency special assessments against Unit Owners or at which amendment to rules regarding Unit use will be considered shall be mailed or delivered to all Unit Owners and posted conspicuously in the Condominium Property not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting.

The Directors may establish a schedule of regular meetings to be held in the office of the Corporation and no notice shall be required to be sent to said Directors of said regular meetings once said schedule has been adopted except as provided in the preceding paragraph or when required by the Act.

Section 9. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on three (3) days' notice to each Director, given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place, and agenda of the meeting. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to all Unit Owners to attend and observe. A "meeting of the Board of Directors" means any gathering of a quorum of the Directors for the purpose of conducting condominium business. When a telephone conference is used, a telephone speaker shall be attached so that the discussion may be heard by the Directors and by any Unit Owners present. Board members utilizing telephone conference calls may be counted toward obtaining a quorum and may vote over the telephone.

Section 11. The presiding officer at the Directors' meeting shall be the President, and in the President's absence the Directors present shall designate one of the Directors present to preside. The presiding officer shall be entitled to vote on all questions arising before the Board of Directors.

Section 1. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director or Officer made a party or threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding as follows. This indemnification shall extend to any action of a judicial, administrative, criminal, or investigatory nature (including but not limited to, an action by the Corporation), brought by or against such Director or Officer, based on an act, or acts, alleged to have been committed by such Director or Officer of the Corporation, in such Director's or Officer's capacity as such or in such Director's or Officer's capacity as Director, Officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise which such Director or Officer served at the request of the Corporation. In any such action, the Director or Officer shall be indemnified by the Corporation against judgments, losses, liabilities, costs, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, incurred by such Director or Officer as a result of such action, suit, or proceeding or any appeal therein, provided such Director or Officer did not act with gross negligence or willful misconduct. The termination of any such action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, in itself, create a presumption that any such Director or Officer acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 2. Indemnification as provided in this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director or Officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person. References herein to Directors and Officers shall include not only current Directors and Officers, but former Directors and former Officers as well.

Section 3. The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a Director or Officer of the Corporation against any liability asserted against such Director or Officer and incurred by such Director or Officer in any such capacity or arising out of such Director's or Officer's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such Director or Officer against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 4. The aforementioned rights shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other indemnification and cost advancement rights to which each such Director or Officer may be entitled. In particular, the Corporation shall also indemnify (and advance costs to) each such Director and Officer to the full extent allowed under any applicable statute (including, but not limited to, Section 607.0850, Florida Statutes).
ARTICLE VIII
FINANCE

Section 1. The funds of the Corporation shall be deposited in such banks or depositories having their accounts insured by an instrumentality of the Federal Government as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, upon resolutions approved by the Board of Directors, and shall be withdrawn only upon checks and demands for monies signed by such officer or officers of the Corporation as may be designated by the Board of Directors. Should the Corporation employ a Managing Agent, and should in the course of such employment said Managing Agent be charged with any responsibilities concerning control of any of the funds of the Corporation, then, and in such event, any Agreement with such Managing Agent pertaining to the deposit and withdrawal of moneys shall supersede the provisions hereof during the terms of any such agreement.

Section 2. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on the first day of January of each year; provided, however, that the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to change to a different fiscal year, at such times as the Board of Directors deems advisable.

Section 3. An audit of the accounts of the Corporation shall be made in accordance with Chapter 718, Florida Statutes. The Board of Directors shall make the determination annually, based on competent advice, as to the Corporation's method of reporting income.

Section 4. Financial reports or a complete set of financial statements shall be delivered or mailed to each Unit Owner in accordance with Chapter 718, Florida Statutes.

Section 5. The Board of Directors shall adopt an annual budget on or before November 1st of each year for the following calendar year in accordance with Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (and in particular §718.112(2)(e) and (f)).

Section 6. The Board of Directors shall require that a fidelity bond be obtained for all "persons who control or disburse funds" of the Corporation, as defined in §718.112(2)(q), Florida Statutes. The amount of such bond shall be in the principal sum required by §718.112(2)(j), Florida Statutes, for each such person and the premium on such bond shall be paid by the Corporation as an item of general expense, unless otherwise provided by contract between the Corporation and an independent management company.

Section 7. All assessments paid by members of the Corporation for the maintenance and operation of the Condominium shall be utilized by the Corporation for the purpose of said assessments. All excess monies received from said assessments paid by any members shall be held by the Corporation for the use and benefit of the members. Any surplus held by the Corporation after the payment of Common Expenses shall be considered as Common Surplus and held for the benefit of all members. No distribution of any Common Surplus shall be made in cash to the members at any time. This section is subject to specific provisions pertaining to Special Assessments as contained in Chapter 718, Florida Statutes.
Section 8.

(a) The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall fix and determine from time to time the sum or sums necessary and adequate for the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Common Expenses shall include expenses for the operation, maintenance, repair or replacement of the Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements including, without limitation, all expenses associated with maintaining all manufacturer's warranties on such Common and Limited Common Elements and performing preventive maintenance on the same, costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the Corporation, all insurance premiums and expenses related thereto, including fire and extended coverage and liability insurance, reasonable reserves and contingency funds (unless otherwise properly waived), and any other expenses designated as Common Expenses from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or under the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium to which these Bylaws are attached.

The Board of Directors is specifically empowered on behalf of the Corporation, to make and collect assessments and to maintain, repair and replace the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements of the Condominium. Funds for the payment of Common Expenses shall be assessed against the Unit Owners in the proportions or percentages of sharing Common Expenses, as provided in the Declaration. Said assessments shall be payable monthly (unless changed by the Board of Directors, but in no event shall any such change result in payments less frequently than quarterly) in advance, without notice, in an amount no less than required to provide funds in advance for payment of all of the anticipated current operating expenses and for all of the unpaid operating expenses previously incurred, and shall be due on the first day of each month unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the right of the Corporation to accelerate assessments of an Owner delinquent in the Owner's payment of Common Expenses. Accelerated assessments shall be due and payable on the date a claim of lien is filed. Such accelerated assessments shall include the amounts due for the remainder of the budget year in which the claim was filed. Assessments for Special Assessments shall be paid at the times and in the manner that the Board may require in the notice of assessment.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to charge late fees in an amount not to exceed the greater of $25.00 or 5% of such assessment with respect to any assessment (or portion thereof) (regular or special) which is over 30 days late. If the annual assessment proves to be insufficient, the budget and assessments may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors. Unpaid assessments for the remaining portion of the year for which an amended assessment is made shall be payable in as many equal installments as there are installment payment dates remaining in the budget year as of the date of the amended assessment. The budget shall not be amended for emergency or special nonrecurring expenses. Special Assessments shall be levied in the manner set forth in Chapter 718, Florida Statutes.

(b) When the Board of Directors has determined the amount of any assessment, the Treasurer of the Corporation shall mail or present to each Unit Owner a statement of said Unit Owner's assessment, which statement may include the amount of assessments for the entire year.
All assessments shall be payable to the Treasurer, who shall give a receipt for each payment made to him when so requested.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended by the Corporation at a duly constituted meeting for such purpose, provided, however, no amendment shall take effect unless approved by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Voting Representatives in the Condominium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, these Bylaws may only be amended in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium.

Section 2. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Bylaws being proposed by ten percent (10%) of the members, or by three (3) members of the Board of Directors, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the President of the Corporation, or other officer of the Corporation in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a Special Meeting of the Membership for a date not sooner than fourteen (14) days or later than sixty (60) days from receipt by such officer of the proposed amendment or amendments. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting in the same form and in the same manner as notice of the call of a Special Meeting of the members as required and as herein set forth. Notice shall be posted at a conspicuous location on the Condominium Property for at least fourteen (14) continuous days preceding the meeting date.

Section 3. Notice of the subject matter of any proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered. No Bylaw shall be revised or amended by reference to its title or number only. Proposals to amend existing Bylaws shall contain the full text of the Bylaws to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text underlined and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of Bylaw. See Bylaw for present text." Nonmaterial errors or omissions in the Bylaw process shall not invalidate an otherwise properly promulgated amendment.

Section 4. The amendment shall be in accordance with Chapter 718, Florida Statutes. A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate identifying on the first page thereof of the book and page of the Public Records of Broward County, Florida where the Declaration is recorded, and certifying that the amendment was duly adopted as an amendment of the Declaration and Bylaws. The certificate shall be executed by the President or Vice President, and attested by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, of the Corporation with the formalities of a deed. The amendment shall be effective when the certificate and copy of amendment are recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.
ARTICLE X

COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT

Section 1. In the event of any violation of the Condominium Documents or the Condominium Act (other than the nonpayment of an assessment, the remedy for which is discussed in detail in the Declaration of Condominium) by a Unit Owner, or any of his family members, licensees, guests, invitees, lessees, or other person for whom the Unit Owner is responsible, the Corporation, by direction of its Board of Directors, may notify the Unit Owner by written notice (transmitted by mail) of said violation; and, if such violation shall continue for a period of five (5) days from date of mailing the notice, the Corporation, through its Board of Directors, shall have the right to treat such violation as an intentional, inexcusable and material breach of the Condominium Documents or the Condominium Act, as the case may be, and the Corporation may then pursue any remedy available, including, but not limited to:

a. Filing an action at law for damages on behalf of the Corporation or on behalf of the other Unit Owners; and/or

b. Filing an action in equity to enforce performance on the part of the Unit Owner; and/or

c. Filing an action in equity for such equitable relief as may be necessary under the circumstances, including injunctive relief; and/or

d. Except as to an unoccupied Unit, levying a fine against a Unit or Unit Owner in such reasonable sum as the Board may deem appropriate, not to exceed $100.00 per day per violation, not to exceed $1,000.00 in the aggregate. Such fine shall not become a lien against the Condominium Unit of the Unit Owner in violation. The Corporation may bring an action to recover a money judgment for the unpaid fine. The party against whom the fine is sought to be levied shall be first afforded an opportunity for a hearing before a committee of other Unit Owners after reasonable notice of not less than fourteen (14) days. Said notice shall include:

(i) A statement of the date, time and place of the hearing;

(ii) A statement of the provisions of the Condominium Documents or Condominium Act which have allegedly been violated; and,

(iii) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the Corporation.

The party against whom the fine may be levied shall have an opportunity to respond, to present evidence, and to provide written and oral argument on all issues involved and shall have an opportunity at the hearing to review, challenge, and respond to any material considered by the Corporation.
Section 2. Anything to the contrary in Section 1 above notwithstanding, any violations which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be a hazard to health or safety, may be corrected immediately as an emergency matter by the Corporation, without notice to the Unit Owner, and the cost thereof shall be charged to the Unit Owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said Unit Owner’s Unit, which lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as a mortgage of real property is foreclosed. This lien right is separate and apart from the Association’s lien rights for unpaid Assessments under §718.116(3)(a), Florida Statutes. Further, anything to the contrary in Section 1 above notwithstanding, in the event of a non-continuing default making the notice period impractical, the Association may pursue any of its remedies as it deems necessary.

Section 3. Each Unit Owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement of any part of the Condominium Property or any property owned by the Association rendered necessary by the Unit Owner’s act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of the Unit Owner’s family, or the Unit Owner’s or the Unit Owner’s family’s guests, invitees or lessees, or other person for whom the Unit Owner is responsible, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Corporation. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to modify any waiver by an insurance company of its rights of subrogation.

Section 4. Subject to applicable Florida Law, the failure of the Corporation or of a Unit Owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium Documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Corporation or Unit Owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.

Section 5. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Corporation or any Unit Owner pursuant to any term, provision, covenant or condition of the Condominium Documents shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be granted by the Condominium Documents or at law or in equity.

ARTICLE XI
FORECLOSURE

At any foreclosure sale of a Unit, the Board of Directors may, with the written authorization and approval of Voting Representatives representing sixty percent (60%) of the Units in the Condominium, acquire in the name of the Corporation, or its designee, a Condominium Unit being foreclosed. The term “foreclosure,” as used in this Article, shall mean and include any foreclosure of any lien, including the Corporation’s lien for assessments. The power of the Board of Directors to acquire a Condominium Unit at any foreclosure sale shall not be interpreted as any requirement or obligation on the part of the said Board of Directors or of the Corporation to do so.

-17-
ARTICLE XII
NOTICES

Whatever notices are required to be sent hereunder shall be effective only if delivered or sent in accordance with the applicable provisions for notices set forth in the Declaration of Condominium to which these Bylaws are attached.

ARTICLE XIII
LIABILITY SURVIVES TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

The termination of membership in the Corporation shall not relieve or release any such former member from any liability or obligation incurred by such former member under or in any way connected with the Condominium during the period of such membership, or impair any rights or remedies which the Corporation may have against such former member arising out of or in any way connected with such membership, and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

ARTICLE XIV
USE, MAINTENANCE AND APPEARANCE RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. The following restrictions on, and requirements for, the use, maintenance, and appearance of the Units and the Common Elements of the Condominium are reasonably calculated to promote the welfare of the Unit Owners.

Section 2. The Restrictions hereinafter enumerated shall be deemed in effect until amended and shall apply to, and be binding upon, all Unit Owners (and their respective family members, guests, licensees, invitees, and lessees, and other persons for whom said Unit Owners are responsible) except as otherwise provided in this Article. The Unit Owners and other persons subject thereto shall, at all times, obey the same and shall be liable for any violations thereof, use the Unit Owner's best efforts to see that they are faithfully observed by the Unit Owner's family, guests, licensees, invitees, lessees, and other persons for whom he is responsible. Said restrictions are as follows:

(1) Passageways. The sidewalks and entrances must not be obstructed or encumbered or used for any purpose other than ingress and egress.

(2) Storm Shutters. If a Unit Owner desires storm or hurricane shutters, same must be of the type and color approved by the Corporation for all Units in the Condominium.

(3) Wheel Vehicles. No baby carriages, tricycles, bicycles or other wheel vehicles shall be allowed to stand in the halls, passageways, or other common areas of the Condominium.

(4) Servants and Domestic Help. Servants and domestic help of the Unit Owners may not gather or lounge in the Common Elements of the Condominium, except that such help serving as governess, nurse, or babysitter may accompany children in the Common Elements. Domestic help shall enter and leave the property in appropriate attire.

(5) Cleanliness and Safety in Common Areas. No Unit Owner shall allow anything to fall from the windows or doors of his Unit, nor shall he sweep or throw from the Unit any dirt or other substance into any of the corridors, halls or elsewhere in the buildings or make any use of the Common Elements that will increase the cost of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

(6) Water. The Unit Owner will not allow any waste of water or misuse or neglect of any water in the Unit, and will pay for all damage to other portions of the Condominium Building or to other Unit Owners caused by misuse or neglect of water.

(7) Deliveries. Damages to the Condominium Property caused by deliveries or the moving or carrying of articles shall be paid by the Unit Owner in charge of such articles.

(8) Vehicles. No vehicle which cannot operate on its own power shall remain on or within the Condominium Property for more than twenty-four (24) hours (unless such vehicle is kept in an assigned garage parking space), and no repair of vehicles shall be made on or within the Condominium Property. No trucks, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, commercial vehicles, boats, trailers or similar property shall be stored on or within the Condominium Property, unless they are stored in an Owner’s assigned garage parking space or, in the case of motorcycles, in spaces specially designated for motorcycle parking. Any truck, motorcycle, recreational vehicle, commercial vehicle, motorcycle, boat or automobile improperly parked on or within the Condominium Property will be towed away at the expense of the Unit Owner doing or permitting such act, and/or the owner of the subject property. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, vehicles making deliveries to the Condominium and vehicles used in active construction or repair work shall be allowed, but must park in areas designated by the Association. In addition, any vehicle authorized by Declarant that is engaged in any activity relating to construction, maintenance, or marketing of the Condominium Property shall be allowed.

(9) Air-Conditioning Units and Glass. No air-conditioning units may be installed by Unit Owners. No Unit shall have any aluminum foil placed in any window or glass door or any reflective substance placed on any glass.

(10) Window Tinting. Only window tinting of a type and color approved by the Corporation for all Units in the Condominium shall be applied to windows. No tint shall be approved by the Corporation which changes the exterior appearance of the Condominium Building.

(11) Installation or Use of Machinery. No machinery or equipment other than the original installations may be installed or used unless the Corporation gives advance written consent in each and every instance.
(12) Window Washing. It will be the responsibility of all Unit Owners to keep their windows clean (both inside and outside).

(13) Dress. The dictates of good taste and propriety in the manner of dress shall be observed in all Common Elements of the Condominium.

(14) Hurricane Preparation. Each Unit Owner whose Unit will be vacant during the hurricane season must, prior to his departure, take reasonable precautions to prepare the Unit Owner's Unit for a hurricane, and must designate a responsible firm or individual to care for his Unit, should the Unit suffer hurricane damage, and furnish the Association with the name of said firm or individual. Such firm or individual shall contact the Association for clearance to install or remove hurricane shutters.

(15) Signs. No sign, advertisement, notice or other lettering shall be exhibited, displayed, inscribed, painted or affixed in, on or upon any part of the Unit that is visible from outside the Unit.

(16) Window Coverings. Unit Owners shall only install materials approved by the Corporation in windows of their Units visible from the outside of the Condominium Building containing the Unit. The liners or interior surfaces, draperies, blinds, and other window coverings shall all be white so that the Condominium Building will present a uniform exterior appearance, unless otherwise approved in writing by the Board of Directors.

(17) Balconies. No bathing suits, towels, or clothing shall be hung from the balconies. No mops shall be shaken from the balconies or windows. No loose articles shall be left on balconies during the hurricane season. Only patio furniture may be placed on balconies without the approval of the Corporation; all other items placed on a balcony require the approval of the Corporation. All potted plants and landscaped plants which are placed on balconies must be approved in writing in advance by the Corporation. The Corporation may require that the Unit Owner provide the Corporation with a certificate certifying that such plants do not exceed applicable dead weight requirements.

(18) Hallways. Garbage cans, milk boxes, laundry, dry cleaning, supplies or other articles shall not be placed in the halls or on the staircase landings.

(19) Roof. Only personnel authorized by the Corporation shall enter the machinery rooms or go on the roof of the Condominium Building. Unit Owners are not permitted on the roof for any purpose and shall be responsible for keeping their families, guests, employees and contractors off of the roof.

(22) Trash and Garbage. All refuse, waste, cans, or garbage (other than that which the disposal is designed to handle) shall be securely wrapped in paper and sent down the trash chute in a container not exceeding the width of the chute. The trash chute may be used only between 8:00 A.M. and 10:00 P.M., provided, however, no glass may be disposed of down the chute. Newspapers, magazines and bottles shall be stacked in the corner of the trash rooms.

(23) Commercial Activity. No commercial or business activity shall be conducted within any Unit.

(24) Subdivision. No Unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller Unit.

(25) Further Rules and Regulations. The Board of Directors may promulgate other Rules and Regulations as elsewhere provided herein.

(26) Proviso. The above-stated rules and regulations and restrictions are subject to the terms of the Declaration of Condominium, and shall not restrict or impair any rights that Declarant may have under the Declaration. Anything to the contrary in this Article XV notwithstanding, Declarant shall be permitted to take all actions deemed necessary by Declarant in order to develop the Condominium, and to market, sell, and/or lease the Units therein.

ARTICLE XV

PARLIAMENTARY RULES

If a Register is maintained, the party maintaining same may make such reasonable charge as it deems appropriate against the applicable Unit for supplying the information provided herein.
Section 3. Liability In Excess of Insurance. If the Corporation may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage in any legal action, it shall give notice of the exposure to all Unit Owners, who shall have the right to intervene and defend.

Section 4. Conflict. In the event of any conflict between or among the provisions of any of the following, the order of priorities shall be, from highest priority to lowest:
