INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A MOBILE HOME COMPLAINT

Please submit your complaint on the "Mobile Homes Complaint Form". Legibly print or type all of the information you supply on the form.

In order to expedite the processing of your complaint; please attach documentation that supports your allegations. Such documentation may include notices, rental agreement, canceled checks, receipts, and statements from other homeowners corroborating one or more of your allegations. If at all possible, submit clean copies of your documentation. Any documentation you submit with the complaint will become part of the Division's file. Make sure you sign the complaint form in the space provided at the bottom of page 2. If you wish, you can attach the signatures of other persons who may wish to join in on your complaint.

Please understand that the complaint and any documentation, which you attach, is a matter of public record. Accordingly, any person may inspect the case file and may obtain copies of any of the materials in the file. Therefore, the Division cannot protect your identity.

Also, please understand that the Division can investigate only alleged violations of the provisions in Chapter 723, Florida Statutes, and Chapters 61B-29 through 61B-35, Florida Administrative Code, pertaining to mobile homes parks and subdivisions. Examples of complaints that the Division routinely investigates:

- An improper or undelivered prospectus
- Improper "pass on" and "pass through" charges
- Improper notification of rent increases and rule changes
- Right to install appliances
- Prohibited guest fees
- Restrictions on the sale of mobile homes
- Improper notifications of a park sale
- Failure of the park owner to attend meeting with the Designated Homeowner's Committee or to provide specific reasons for rental increases

The Division has no authority to enforce a park owner's general obligations, contained in section 723.022, Florida Statutes, or to determine whether increases or rule changes are unreasonable.
