ADMINISTRATIVE COMPLAINT

Petitioner, the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco (“Petitioner” or “Division”), files this Administrative Complaint (“Complaint”) against R House, Inc., d/b/a R House (“Respondent”), and alleges as follows:

1. Petitioner is the state agency charged with regulating alcoholic beverages and tobacco pursuant to chapters 210, 561-565, and 567-569, Florida Statutes.
2. At all times material to this Complaint, Respondent was the holder of an alcoholic beverage license in the State of Florida, having been issued license number BEV2326662, Series 4COP Quota, which is in Current, Active status.
3. Respondent’s address of record is at 2727 NW 2nd Avenue, Miami, Florida 33127.

4. Respondent is licensed with the Division as a vendor of alcoholic beverages, pursuant to section 565.02(1)(b)-(f), Florida Statutes. Respondent also holds a food service license with the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Hotels and Restaurants.

5. On or about July 3, 2022, a nearly nude dancer was filmed parading a young girl through the audience on Respondent's licensed premises. The video was widely circulated on the Internet and through social media, and it elicited public outrage. See Exhibit 1 (Daily Mail article); Composite Exhibit 2 (screenshots of video).

6. The video shows what appears to be a transgender dancer leading a young girl by the hand and walking through Respondent's dining area. Respondent's "R House" logo appears above the door behind the dancer and the young girl. See Exhibit 2.

7. The dancer's buttocks were fully exposed, and his "g-string"-style bikini bottom was stuffed with dollar bills—a practice that is commonly known to occur at so-called strip clubs. The dancer's breasts—unmistakably female in appearance—were also fully exposed except for the nipples and areolae, which were covered in adhesive "pasties." The young girl in the video appeared to be between three and five years old, and she was holding at least one dollar bill in her hand. Id.

8. Following the foregoing incident, the Division learned that Respondent advertises and offers a "Drag Show Brunch" ("the Brunch") on Saturdays and Sundays, from approximately 11:30 a.m. until approximately 2:30 p.m. See Composite Exhibit 3 (screenshot of video titled "R House Drag Brunch 2017 Promo" and posted on YouTube by user "R House Wynwood" on February 13, 2022; screenshot of Respondent's website).¹ On information and belief, Respondent has been offering the Brunch since approximately 2017. See id. The Division recently learned that young children attend the Brunch.

9. The predominant feature of the Brunch is that male performers dress in traditionally female clothing and perform dances while brunch is served. The clothing and dances typically are sexually suggestive and sometimes sexually explicit—consistent with what one would observe at an adult-themed nightclub.

10. Respondent is aware that young children attend the Brunch, as evidenced by Respondent’s “Kids Brunch” menu that is incorporated into its Brunch menu. See Exhibit 4; see also <https://www.rhousewynwood.com/menu>. Specifically, the Brunch menu advertises a “Kids Brunch” for children “up to 12 years of age” and allows the “choice of any 2 items from above selection, soft drinks and of course our fabulous show.” Id. (emphasis added).

11. In other words, Respondent is not merely aware that young children attend the Brunch, but specifically markets the Brunch performances to young children or to families with young children.

12. The sexualized nature of the Brunch performances is pervasive. For example, one of Respondent’s social media advertisements announces that “our dancers do the MOST to entertain you” and depicts simulated sexual activity on the licensed premises, in full view of the Brunch guests. *See Exhibit 5.*² Another social media video recorded on the licensed premises shows a man lying on the ground while a Brunch performer wearing only a bikini dances directly above his face and a third person “makes it rain” by throwing dollar bills at them. *See Exhibit 6.*³

13. Similarly, on Saturday, July 9, 2022, a Division investigator visited Respondent's licensed premises and observed a presumably male dancer performing in the center of the dining room. The dancer wore revealing women's clothing and gyrated on a raised platform while "pole dancing" and waving a handful of dollar bills in the air. The investigator recorded the event on video, and a true and correct screenshot of the video is attached as Exhibit 7.

14. The full exposure of female breasts (or breasts that are unmistakably female in appearance) except for the use of small "pasties" also occurs during the Brunches. Respondent itself has posted at least one such video on social media. Specifically, a promotional video posted on YouTube by user "R House Wynwood" on February 13, 2022, shows a Brunch performer removing their bikini top to reveal female breasts covered only in small blue "pasties" while dollar bills hang out of the bikini bottoms. *See Exhibit 8.*⁴ Another social media video recorded on the licensed premises shows a Brunch performer with fully exposed breasts (except for orange "pasties") walking among Respondent's guests and accepting dollar bills from them. The video is captioned "Brunch at R House in Miami is a whole mood" and includes the statement "If you know, you know @rhousewynwood." *See Exhibit 9.*⁵

15. Finally, numerous videos on social media (and several taken recently by Division investigators) demonstrate that young children often attend and observe the Brunch performances.

16. As just one example of many, a 35-minute video posted on YouTube by user "Simply Shandrell" on September 14, 2021, shows a series of lewd Brunch performances—many of which occurred several feet from a young girl who appears to be no more than ten years old.

⁵ This video is available at https://www.tiktok.com/@torrean_/video/7101894648842554666.

*See Composite Exhibit 10.*⁶ Among other performances the child observed that day, a dancer gyrated in front of her while wearing a skintight red outfit with a hole cut directly between his buttocks. Id.

17. Another social media video recorded on the licensed premises (posted on TikTok by user “skywalkermommy” and tagging “#rhousewynwood” and “#dragbrunch”) shows a male Brunch performer dressed as a woman and dancing with a young boy who appears to be between the ages of three and five years old. *See Exhibit 11.*⁷ Similarly, a video recorded on the licensed premises and posted on YouTube as a YouTube “short” video shows another male Brunch performer dressed as a woman and dancing with a young boy who appears to be no older than ten. *See Exhibit 12.*⁸ And another video recorded on the licensed premises shows another young girl—who appears to be no more than five or six years old—observing a Brunch performance. *See Exhibit 13.*⁹

18. On Sunday, July 17, 2022, a Division investigator visited Respondent’s licensed premises and observed another young girl in attendance at the Brunch. The child, who appeared to be less than ten years old, was sitting with a pink laptop or iPad and was facing the center of the dining-room area where the Brunch performances occur. A redacted screenshot of the investigator’s video is attached hereto as Exhibit 14.

19. Shortly thereafter, the investigator observed a Brunch performer dancing at a table that was located mere steps from the child. The dancer wore a skintight yellow outfit with cutouts where bikini straps ordinarily would be, and the guests at the table waved dollar bills at him. The young child remained seated at the nearby table and witnessed this performance. Id.

20. On Saturday, July 23, 2022, a Division investigator visited Respondent's licensed premises and again observed a young girl in attendance at the Brunch. The child, who appeared to be between the ages of ten and twelve, was seen recoiling and turning away in her seat as a Brunch performer climbed on the back of the child's bench, squatted, and gyrated a couple of feet above the child's head. Redacted screenshots of the investigator's video are attached hereto as Composite Exhibit 15.

COUNT ONE

21. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.

22. Section 561.29(1)(c), Florida Statutes, provides that

(1) The division is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license of any person holding a license under the Beverage Law, when it is determined or found by the division upon sufficient cause appearing of:

(c) Maintaining a nuisance on the licensed premises.

23. "A person who erects, establishes, continues, maintains, owns, or leases" a building "or place that . . . becomes manifestly injurious to the morals or manners of the people as provided in s. 823.01" "is deemed to be maintaining a nuisance." § 823.05(1)(a), Fla. Stat. (2021).¹⁰ Similarly, any such place is "declared a nuisance" under the statute. Id.

¹⁰ Section 823.01 provides, in pertinent part, that "[a]ll nuisances that tend to annoy the community, injure the health of the citizens in general, or corrupt the public morals are misdemeanors of the second degree[.]"

24. The Florida Supreme Court has recognized that “men impersonating women” in the context of “suggestive and indecent” performances constitutes a public nuisance. Fed. Amusement Co. v. State ex rel. Tuppen, 32 So. 2d 1, 2 (Fla. 1947).

25. Respondent not only promotes and hosts such performances on the licensed premises, but has done so repeatedly in the presence of young children. Such performances are nuisances within the scope of sections 823.01 and 823.05, Florida Statutes.

26. Moreover, even if the Brunch performers were biological women, the nature of the performances described above (and shown in the attached exhibits) would still constitute a public nuisance—particularly where young children are present.

27. Accordingly, Respondent has maintained a nuisance on the licensed premises, and its license is subject to revocation.

COUNT TWO

28. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.

29. Section 561.29(1)(a), Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part that

(1) The division is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license of any person holding a license under the Beverage Law, when it is determined or found by the division upon sufficient cause appearing of:

(a) Violation by the licensee or his or her or its agents, officers, servants, or employees, on the licensed premises, or elsewhere while in the scope of employment, of any of the laws of this state . . . or permitting another on the licensed premises to violate any of the laws of this state

30. Section 796.07(2)(a) prohibits the operation of “any place, structure, building, or conveyance for the purpose of lewdness[.]” Under this statute, lewdness is defined as “any indecent or obscene act.” § 796.07(1)(b), Fla. Stat. (2021).

31. The performances and simulated sexual activity described above (and shown in the attached exhibits)—particularly when conducted in the presence of young children—constitutes lewd activity and warrants revocation of Respondent’s license. See Hoskins v. Dept. of Bus. Reg., Div. of Alcoholic Beverages & Tobacco, 592 So. 2d 1145 (Fla. 2d DCA 1992) (lap dances that included “simulated sexual activity” and physical contact were lewd within the meaning of section 796.07(2)(a) and therefore justified revocation of alcoholic beverage license).

COUNT THREE

32. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.

33. Section 561.29(1)(a), Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part that

(1) The division is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license of any person holding a license under the Beverage Law, when it is determined or found by the division upon sufficient cause appearing of:

(a) . . . engaging in or permitting disorderly conduct on the licensed premises

34. Florida’s disorderly conduct statute prohibits “such acts as are of a nature to corrupt the public morals, or outrage the sense of public decency.” § 877.03, Fla. Stat. (2021).

35. The nature of the performances described above, particularly when conducted in the presence of young children, corrupts the public morals and outrages the sense of public decency. See McGuire v. State, 489 So. 2d 729, 732 (Fla. 1986) (“the terms ‘public decency’ and ‘corrupt the public morals’ are terms of general understanding and . . . anyone of common intelligence would be perfectly aware that such public exposure [of female breasts] was prohibited”) (citing State v. Magee, 259 So.2d 139, 140 (Fla. 1972)).

36. Respondent has permitted these performances to occur in the presence of young children and has thereby permitted disorderly conduct on its licensed premises. Accordingly, its license is subject to revocation.

COUNT FOUR

37. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.

38. Section 561.29(1)(a), Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part that

(1) The division is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license of any person holding a license under the Beverage Law, when it is determined or found by the division upon sufficient cause appearing of:

(b) Violation by the licensee or his or her or its agents, officers, servants, or employees, on the licensed premises, or elsewhere while in the scope of employment, of any of the laws of this state . . . or permitting another on the licensed premises to violate any of the laws of this state

39. Section 800.03, Florida Statutes, prohibits unlawful exposure of sexual organs. Specifically, it provides that “exposing or exhibiting . . . sexual organs in public or on the private premises of another . . . in a vulgar or indecent manner” is unlawful. § 800.03(1)(a), Fla. Stat. (2021). Cf. § 847.001(9), Fla. Stat. (2021) (defining “nudity” in part as “the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a fully opaque covering; or the showing of the female breast with less than a fully opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple”). The indecent-exposure statute creates an exception whereby “a mother breastfeeding her baby” does not violate the statute, thereby establishing that female breasts are otherwise “sexual organs” within the meaning of the statute.

40. Respondent has repeatedly permitted its performers to violate Section 800.03 on the licensed premises by allowing them to expose their breasts (covered only by small “pasties”) during the course of their performances and in front of young children. See Exhibits 4, 8, 9. Accordingly, Respondent's license is subject to revocation.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Division enter a Final Order (1) finding that Respondent has maintained a nuisance on the licensed premises or otherwise allowed its agents, employees, or other persons to violate the laws of Florida on the licensed premises, and (2) revoking Respondent's alcoholic beverage license.

Signed on this 26th day of July, 2022.

'These people belong in jail!' Fury erupts over video of little girl being led by strutting drag queen with exposed breasts

- Video has been posted of a drag queen walking hand in hand with a little girl
- 16 second clip was filmed at a drag queen brunch in Wynwood, Miami
- Footage has sparked outrage online with one pundit demanding that the drag queen involved be arrested and that Governor Ron DeSantis step in Internet users have condemned a clip showing a tiny child being led by the hand by a drag queen with huge exposed boobs during an event at a Miami bar.

The 16 second video sees the young girl, who appears to be aged between two and four, dressed in a tiara as she parades with a woman in skimpy clothing.

That performer - who appears to be a transgender woman - proudly displays gigantic boobs, with her nipples covered with pasties while wearing lingerie stuffed with dollar bills.

She parades around the R House Wynwood in a TikTok video shared by a user called nononoie, who wrote: 'Children belong at drag shows!!!! Children deserve to see fun & expression & freedom.'

It's unclear when the clip was shot, who the performer is - and how nononoie is related to the girl being filmed.

She has made her TikTok private, likely after receiving a tidal wave of condemnation over the clip.

The clip appeared to irk Christian conservative pundit Lauren Chen who angrily tweeted: 'These people belong in jail. This is a hill I'm willing to die on.'

'Cheering on absolute depravity to make their own degeneracy seem tame by comparison - we know the venue where this happened... Is anyone going to do anything about it???' she asked on Twitter.

Plenty of users agreed with Chen who has posted several times in the past about such 'disturbing' events.

Drag Queen "family" events are not designed to foster acceptance among children

They're specifically meant as a venue for progressive parents to virtue signal how woke they are by exposing their kids to the most depraved parts of leftist ideology

Even in Red Texas, Groomers recently held a drag queen event for KIDS at a BAR to celebrate Pride month.

And the worst part?

Chen has posted several times in the past of her disdain for drag queen events at which children are permitted

'Time to prove your worth Ron DeSantis. Make sure this person gets arrested and the venue is shuttered,' tweeted Aaron R.

'This is just wrong, Mr Governor DeSantis I know is not your fault but you need to do something about this!' wrote Gabriel Garcia.

'Pedophilia is illegal, gross, creepy and depraved... This does not fit under any free speech laws.... These people deserve jail and eventually hell,' wrote another upset Twitter follower.

A stunning moment shows a little girl sitting on the knee of an adult at a Michigan drag show, tipping a performer displaying large, synthetic breasts during what was supposed to be a 'family friendly' event

Similar instances have been recorded in the past including in September 2021 when a young girl was filmed tipping a drag queen baring a huge set of synthetic breasts during a 'family-friendly' event at a Michigan gay venue.

The child, whose age was not disclosed, passed a bill to RuPaul's Drag Race star Yara Sofia at Hamburger Mary's in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in the clip.

She was sat on the knee of an adult woman at the time, who smiled warmly as the youngster tipped the performer, whose real name is Gabriel Burgos Ortiz.

The videos of youngsters interacting with the drag queens comes as debates rage across the country about whether young children are being exposed to content that is inappropriate by well-meaning family members and educators in the name of support for LGBT equality.

New York City has been spending heavily on sending drag queens into its public elementary schools, dropping more than $200,000 on appearances since 2018.

In May, records show the city paying $46,000 to send Drag Story Hour NYC to public schools, libraries, and street festivals, according to the New York Post.

Some parents say the programs were booked without their consent, while city officials have responded with outrage, according to the Post.

Drag Queen story-hours have also hit the headlines. They see performers read story books to children at events held in schools or libraries.

The books read to kids are children's story books, usually by drag queens in less-revealing outfits.

Supporters say the events are harmless and innocent, but conservatives claim the story hours often veer into age-inappropriate vulgarity.

A drag queen who goes by the name Flame reads stories to children and their caretakers during a Drag Story Hour at a public library in New York, in June Drag Queen Story Hour, a nonprofit, was started in San Francisco in 2015 by activist and author Michelle Tea. Chapters have since opened across the U.S. and elsewhere. Other organizations with readers in drag have also formed.

As part of Drag Queen Story Hour's programming, drag queens read to children and their parents at libraries, bookstores, fairs, parks and other public spaces to celebrate reading 'through the glamorous art of drag.'

In 2022 alone, Drag Story Hour NYC has made 49 appearances at 34 public schools in New York City, according to its website.

The organization characterizes itself as promoting inclusivity, creativity, and acceptance of the self in children, by exposing them to drag queens reading similarly thematic books.

'Through fun and fabulous educational experiences, our programs celebrate gender diversity and all forms of difference to build empathy and give kids the confidence to express themselves however they feel comfortable,' the website reads.

Images from the site show people dressed in bedazzled dresses, shimmering wigs, and heavy eye shadow, reading to young children in classroom, and even helping the kids apply makeup themselves.

The company has received $207,000 from taxpayers since 2018, records show. $50,000 of that has come from the New York State Council on the Arts, and the other $157,000 from the NYC Department of Education, the Department of Youth and Community Development, the Department of Transportation, and Cultural Affairs.

The funds were provided by city council members, with $80,000 being allocated for drag programs in 2022 alone - over three times as much as was provided in 2020 for drag programs.
