Application Review

Interior Design

Ana Karakadze

Ms. Karakadze was present. Ms. Grigsby presented the application and commented that Ms. Karakadze's degree was in industrial design and did not meet the education requirements. Ms. Clark advised the board that Ms. Karakadze applied pursuant to Chapter 481.213(3)(a), Florida Statutes with reference to Chapter 481.209(2), Florida Statutes. Ms. Grigsby commented that she did not meet the educational requirements set forth in Chapter 481.209(2), Florida Statutes.

Ms. Karakadze commented that she submitted some additional educational information to the board office for review. She requested that the additional information be reviewed by the education consultant and waived her Chapter 120.60, Florida Statutes application processing rights.

Motion: Mr. Rodriguez moved to table the application to allow an additional educational review.

Second: Ms. Grigsby seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Dawn Hamilton

No one was present. Ms. Grigsby presented the application and commented that Ms. Hamilton's degree was in art history which did not meet Florida's education requirements. Ms. Clark advised that Ms. Hamilton's application was made pursuant to Chapter 481.213(3)(a), Florida Statutes with reference to Chapter 481.209(2), Florida Statutes. Ms. Grigsby commented that she did not meet the educational requirements set forth in Chapter 481.209(2), Florida Statutes.

Motion: Ms. Del Bianco moved to deny because the applicant does not meet the educational requirements pursuant Chapter 481.213(3)(a) and Chapter 481.209(2), Florida Statutes.

Second: Ms. Shore seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Ms. Del Bianco requested that Mr. Minacci review the application for possible practice without a license.

Interior Design Certificate of Authorization

Denmark Imports

Denmark Interiors

Mr. Andrews and Ms. Cahill were present. Ms. Grigsby presented the application and commented that the application reflected practice prior to receiving the certificate of authorization.

Mr. Minacci advised the board that a citation was issued to Denmark Interiors and the applicant had complied by paying a $500 fine. The board advised the applicants that they must reflect offering interior design services on their letterhead.

Motion: Ms. Del Bianco moved to approve Denmark Imports and Denmark Interiors.

Second: Mr. Rodriguez seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Architecture Certificate of Authorization
Civica LLC

Mr. Llanes was present. Mr. Hicks presented the application and commented that the application reflected practice prior to receiving the certificate of authorization. Mr. Llanes commented that not having the certificate was an oversight on his part and confirmed that he was the only owner and officer of the firm.

Motion: Ms. Del Bianco moved to approve the application with a $500 fine as a condition of licensure.

Second: Ms. Membiela seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Luis O. Revuelta PA

Mr. Revuelta was present. Mr. Hicks presented the application and commented that the application reflected practice prior to receiving the certificate of authorization. Mr. Minacci advised the board that a citation was issued and Mr. Revuelta had complied by paying the $500 fine for both the firm and the Florida Building Code course. He requested that the board approve the application.

Motion: Mr. Rodriguez moved to approve the application as presented.

Second: Ms. Membiela seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Jass & Associates, Architecture

Mr. Jass was present. Mr. Minacci commented that Mr. Jass was present at the last board meeting and the board reviewed a settlement stipulation. He presented the details of the case and advised that Mr. Jass was in compliance of the order. Mr. Jass confirmed for the board that he was no longer working with the firm referenced in the disciplinary case and he was working on his own.

Motion: Mr. Rodriguez moved to approve the application as presented.

Second: Ms. Shore seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

TSAO Design Group, Inc.

Mr. Hagopian was present. Mr. Hicks presented the application and commented that the application reflected practice prior to receiving the certificate of authorization. Mr. Hagopian commented that he was not aware of the certificate of authorization requirement and it was an oversight.

Motion: Mr. Rodriguez moved to approve the application with a $500 fine as a condition of licensure.

Second: Ms. Del Bianco seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Winter Haven Design Group, Inc.

Mr. Pozzuoli was present. Mr. Hicks presented the application and commented that the application reflected practice prior to receiving the certificate of authorization. Mr. Pozzuoli commented that he completed the application incorrectly and submitted revised application information.

Motion: Mr. Rodriguez moved to approve the application with a $500 fine as a condition of licensure.

Second: Ms. Del Bianco seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Addendum

Application Review

Kohn Pedersen Fox Associates PC

Mr. Kohn and Mr. Cioppa were present. Mr. Rodriguez was recused from the review since he did not have the materials. Ms. Chastain presented the application and commented that the firm was originally licensed in 1996 and the license went delinquent in 2003 then null and void in 2005.

Mr. Cioppa advised that they were not aware the license was null and void and when they realized that fact they ceased all practice and reapplied for licensure.

Ms. Clark advised the board that they could impose a $500 fine for the time the license was delinquent and null and void.

Motion: Ms. Del Bianco moved to approve the application as presented with a $1,000 fine as a condition of licensure.

Second: Mr. Gustafson seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
