Major Issues/Actions

- The board reviewed a request for endorsement from an applicant for an architect license and after discussion of the information presented the board approved the application.
- The board reviewed a second application for endorsement for an architect license and after discussion of the information with the applicant, the applicant decided to withdraw the application from board review.
- The board reviewed an applicant's request for endorsement of a interior design license. After discussion of the information with the applicant, the applicant decided to withdraw the application from board review.
- An individual charged with unlicensed activity requested the board remove the information from the website. The board responded that because the case involved an unlicensed case the information will remain on the website and the request was denied by the board.
