Application Review

Interior Design Examination

Flavia Cardoso

Ms. Cardoso requested a continuance for the next conference call.

MOTION: Mr. Rodriguez moved to continue the application to the next available conference call.

SECOND: Mr. Gustafson seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Kimberley Newell

Ms. Newell requested a continuance for the next available meeting.

MOTION: Mr. Rodriguez moved to continue to the next available meeting.

SECOND: Ms. Reeves seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Interior Design Certificate of Authorization

Agostino's Design Group, Inc.

Ms. Benanti was present. Ms. Reeves reviewed the file and recommended approval.

MOTION: Mr. Rodriguez moved to approve the certificate of authorization.

SECOND: Ms. Reeves seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Continuing Education

Eva L. Cater – AutoCAD 2002 Level I

Ms. Cocheu commented that this course was previously denied, however, the individual submitted this for approval.

MOTION: Mr. Gustafson moved to deny and allow a 90-day extension to complete the course hours required.

SECOND: Mr. Bullock seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Mr. Rodriguez commented that Joyce Shore, the reviewer, recommended approval for 4 hours and the individual could make up the difference. Ms. Cocheu commented that the course was denied. Mr. Bullock commented that he did not agree with awarding partial credit. After discussion, the board agreed to deny the course but allow the individual a 90-day extension to complete the course hours required.

M. A. Corson and Associates, Inc.

Mr. Corson was present. Mr. Hicks presented the application and commented that the original license was not renewed and it appears that they continued to practice from 2/28/01 until 3/14/03. Ms. Cocheu commented that the individual was approved for an individual license at the last meeting. Ms. Estes confirmed that Mr. Corson has met the requirements for the individual license and it has been issued. Mr. Corson commented that he did not receive the renewal notice because they moved. He commented that he has shut down his practice while waiting for approval for licensure by the board.

MOTION: Mr. Gustafson moved to approve the certificate of authorization with a fine of $1,000.

SECOND: Mr. Rodriguez seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Mr. Gonzalez called in at 10:21 a.m.

Interior Design Endorsement Application

Ashley Haynes

Ms. Haynes was not present. Ms. Reeves commented that the person that verified Ms. Haynes' experience license went null and void, therefore, Ms. Haynes thought she was working under a license individual and she was not. Ms. Del Bianco commented that technically Ms. Haynes was trying to do the right thing. Ms. Del Bianco asked if the person that allowed her license to go null and void reapplied for licensure. Ms. Estes confirmed that as of today's date that person has not reapplied for re-licensure.

Mr. Rodriguez stated that he would like to give the applicant the benefit of the doubt. Ms. Cocheu suggested that the board continue the application until the July meeting.

MOTION: Mr. Rodriguez moved to continue the application to the July meeting.

SECOND: Mr. Gonzalez seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Christine Minnich

Ms. Minnich was not present. Ms. Reeves presented the application, commented that Mr. Butler performed an educational reviewed, and recommended denial because her education was missing the liberal arts requirement.

MOTION: Ms. Reeves moved to deny the application.

SECOND: Mr. Bullock seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
