Ms. Robyn Barineau, Executive Director, and Mr. Clark Jennings, Assistant Attorney General, reported that there is no need to seek legislation to allow individuals to take the Principle and Practices (P&P) examination before applying for a license. At Mr. Dudley’s request, Ms. Barineau contacted the Department of Revenue on the one-stop permitting process required by HB 5501. She added that the project is currently moving through the Request for Proposal process.
