Meeting Type: General Business Meeting
Meeting Location: 1940 North Monroe Street, Board Room, Tallahassee
Members Present: Mr. Paul Davis, Ms. Elizabeth Marshall-Beasley,
Mr. Philip Graham and Ms. Collene Walter
Members Absent: Ms. Elizabeth Gillick

II. Major Issues/Actions

- 1 disciplinary case
- 1 application review
- 15 continuing education courses
- The board discussed the Florida building code core curriculum and decided to leave it as a course instead of incorporating it into their licensing examination.
- The board discussed the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Board's (CLARB) strategic plan. The board discussed why individuals are not testing.
- The board asked that yellow page ads be reviewed for unlicensed activity.
- The board discussed architects signing and sealing landscape plans.
- The board approved the explanations from two candidates to waive the fee for the June examination. They had previously paid and been unable to attend the December examination. The board requested medical documentation from candidates in the future.
- The board asked that future applications for certificates of authorization where prior practice is noted be presented to the board for action.

III. Legislation/Rule Promulgation

- Review and amend Rule 61G10-18.001, FAC, Continuing Education

IV. Action Required

- Discuss with the Division of Regulation the review of yellow page ads.
- Assistant Attorney General to notice rule changes.
- Assistant Attorney General to write letter to Ms. Roppolo that auditing a university class does not count towards continuing education.
- Assistant Attorney General to research if the use of the term Florida “registered” or “certified” is a conflict if not state licensed. A draft letter concerning this matter will be presented at the July 2003 meeting.
- Schedule a telephone conference call for May 20, 2003 at 9:00 a.m.
- Schedule a general business meeting for July 31, 2003, in Ft. Lauderdale.
