REVIEW OF CHAPTER 310, FLORIDA STATUTES
Commissioner Fernandez stated that there was a Legislative Committee meeting scheduled for February 11, 2014, at 10:00 a.m., at the Florida Hotel and Conference Center in Orlando.

Commissioner Fernandez stated that nothing had been submitted for the agenda, however, Commissioner Fox had submitted information that was included in the hand-outs, and the Committee reviewed the information at this time.

Commissioner Fernandez stated that a complete rewrite of Chapter 310, F.S. was not possible, therefore, the Committee could perhaps select five items that could be considered at the February meeting.

Commissioner Fox commented that his major concerns are the safety of the pilots, the lack of minorities, and the situation in Pensacola. He stated that cruise ships should be handled differently from cargo vessels. He asked for guidelines from Mr. Flury.

Mr. Flury stated that he can advise how to try and approach the issues, however, he cannot advise them on how to make changes. He stated that they need to have a systematic approach. He also suggested that a specific agenda be set for the February meeting.
Commissioner Nielsen stated that he felt they should address all of the issues and not just four or five.

Commissioner Fox asked if an invitation could be sent to the tanker lines, cargo companies, and other stakeholders. Commissioner Fernandez responded that the meeting information is posted on the Board’s website and is noticed in the Florida Administrative Register. Commissioner Fox commented that he understood that Commissioners can invite people to attend the meeting.

Ms. Barineau suggested that a matrix be prepared with Commissioner Fox’s comments. She asked members to respond to staff by January 30, 2014, at noon with their responses for inclusion in the February 11 agenda.
