II Major Issues /Actions

- The board held a telephone conference to review applications for endorsement, examination, surveyor in training, continuing education courses, course renewals and one business application. This meeting allowed as many applicants as possible to take the National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying (NCEES) licensure examination in April 2009. There were two endorsement applications (one was approved and one was denied), six applications by examination (five were approved and one denied) and 23 applications for surveyor in training (22 were approved and one denied). The board also reviewed four continuing education courses (all four were approved).
