LICENSURE INFORMATION

1. When is a person required to be licensed as a talent agent in Florida?

In Florida, a person acting as an agent is required to be licensed when securing, for a fee, entertainment engagements for their client. No license is required if the agent is representing herself or himself, a family member, or exclusively one artist. However, a person may not advertise or otherwise hold herself or himself out as a "talent agency" or "talent agent" unless the person is licensed as a talent agency in Florida.

2. What are the requirements for licensure as a talent agency?

You must have one year of direct experience or similar experience as an operator in the talent agency business as:

- Subagent;

- Casting Director;
- Producer;
- Director;
- Advertising Agency;
- Talent Coordinator; or
- Musical Booking Agent.

You must submit an application and the required fees along with electronic fingerprints. The application is available online at www.MyFloridaLicense.com > Apply For/Update Licenses. Upon approval of your application, you will be required to submit a surety bond in the amount of $5,000.00 before your license can be issued. The surety bond application may be obtained at www.MyFloridaLicense.com > Apply For/Update Licenses.

3. Where may I obtain a surety bond as part of my licensing requirement?

You must contact a bonding/surety corporation that is authorized to issue bonds in the State of Florida.

Electronic fingerprint submissions are received in the Department in approximately 24-48 hours upon receipt by the vendor. Applications are normally processed within two weeks of receipt.

5. Can I conduct business as a talent agency while my license is processing?

You may not operate as a talent agency until you receive your talent agency license issued by the department. The department does not offer a temporary license for this profession.

6. Can the talent agency operate when the qualified licensee is no longer affiliated with the talent agency?

The talent agency may not write any new contracts, but can continue to administer any current contracts in place for a period of no longer than 90 days at which point they must have another qualifier.

7. Can I change my address online?

Yes. Visit our website at www.MyFloridaLicense.com > Apply For/Update Licenses. You can also change your telephone number and email address here.

8. Your website provides for "main", "mailing", and "location" addresses. What are the differences?

Three types of addresses have been established to support your needs: main, license mailing, and license location.

Main Address - This address is the primary address on file.

License Mailing Address - This is the address where the mail associated with a particular license will be sent (if different from the main or license location addresses).

License Location Address - This is the address where the place of business is physically located.

An example of the use of different addresses:

If Jane Doe is a contractor that works for ACME Builders, she may have 3 different addresses listed in her profile. Her main address would be the address of ACME Builders' corporate headquarters. Her license mailing may be her home so she doesn't have to visit the office to pick up her mail. Finally, her License Location would be the address of the ACME Builders' local office where she works. If Jane Doe worked independently, she might have only one address on file (Main Address) as her office is the same place she wishes to receive her mail.

9. Can I change all license addresses online?

The main address and license mailing address can be changed online for all license types. License location addresses can also be changed online, except for Barbershops, Cosmetology Salons, Veterinary Establishments, and Talent Agencies. The location for these license types is tied to the license, so a location change will require submission of a new application.

10. How can I change my address if I do not have a computer?

You may submit the change in writing or by fax to:
Department of Business and Professional Regulation
Central Intake Unit – License Maintenance
1940 North Monroe Street
Tallahassee, FL 32399-0783
