LICENSURE TYPES & DEFINITIONS (s. 475.611 F.S. for more complete definitions)

|---|---|
| What is a Registered Trainee Appraiser? (RI) | A person registered by the department as qualified to perform appraisal services only under the direct supervision of a licensed or certified appraiser. A registered trainee appraiser may accept appraisal assignments only from her or his primary or secondary supervisory appraiser, and may only take payment for appraisal services directly from the supervisor. |
| What is a Licensed Appraiser? (RH) | A person licensed by the department as qualified to issue appraisal reports for residential real property of one to four residential units or on such real estate or real property as may be authorized by federal regulation. After July 1, 2003, the department shall not issue licenses for the category of licensed appraiser. |
| What is a Certified Residential Appraiser? (RD) | A person certified by the department as qualified to issue appraisal reports for residential real property of one to four residential units, without regard to transaction value or complexity, or real property as may be authorized by federal regulation. |
| What is a Certified General Appraiser? (RZ) | A person certified by the department as qualified to issue appraisal reports for any type of real property. |
| What is a Residential Appraiser Instructor? (IR) | s. 475.627 F.S. - A person who is licensed to teach courses prescribed by the board as relating to pre, post education for registered, licensed and certified residential appraisers, and continuing education for all license types. |
| What is a General Appraiser Instructor? (GA) | s. 475.627 F.S. - A person who is licensed to teach courses prescribed by the board as relating to pre, post, and continuing education for registered, licensed, certified residential, and certified general appraisers. |
| What is a federally related transaction? | Any real estate-related financial transaction which a federal financial institutions regulatory agency or the Resolution Trust Corporation engages in, contracts for, or regulates, and which requires the services of a state-licensed or state-certified appraiser. |
| What is the Appraisal Foundation? | The Appraisal Foundation is a not-for-profit educational organization dedicated to the advancement of professional valuation. It was established by the appraisal profession in the United States in 1987. The Foundation has 3 subsections: Appraisal Qualifications Board, Appraisal Standards Board, and Appraisal Subcommittee. For more information visit: www.appraisalfoundation.org . |
| What is the Appraisal Qualifications Board? (AQB) | The AQB establishes educational and experience qualification criteria for the licensing, certification and recertification of appraisers. For more information, visit www.appraisalfoundation.org . |
| What is the Appraisal Standards Board? (ASB) | The ASB develops, interprets and amends the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP). The ASB is composed of six appraisers who are appointed for three year terms by the Board of Trustees of The Appraisal Foundation. Members of the ASB may serve two consecutive three year terms. Activities of the Board are directed by the Chair, who is appointed by the Board of Trustees for a one year term. For more information, visit www.appraisalfoundation.org . |
| What is the Appraisal Subcommittee? (ASC) | The ASC oversees the real estate appraisal process as it relates to federally related transactions in the areas of regulatory compliance, temporary practice, and enforcement. For more information, visit www.asc.gov . |
| What is the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice? (USPAP) | The most recent standards approved and adopted by the Appraisal Standards Board of the Appraisal Foundation. The Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA) recognizes USPAP as the generally accepted appraisal standards and requires USPAP compliance for appraisers in federally related transactions. State Appraiser Certification and Licensing Boards; federal, state, and local agencies, appraisal services; and appraisal trade associations require compliance with USPAP. For more information, visit www.appraisalfoundation.org . |

|-------------------------------|--|
| What are FIRREA and Title XI? | In August 1989, Congress enacted the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989, better known as FIRREA. Title XI requires federally regulated financial institutions, such as federally insured banks, thrifts and credit unions, to use state certified or licensed appraisers to perform appraisals assignments in federally related transactions. | Must I keep track of the appraisal education and general education I take to qualify for my credential? | Yes. It is the responsibility of the student to maintain records and proof of completion of the qualifying education they have completed. This means keeping copies of the student's transcripts showing the classes taken and the grades achieved. |

Post-licensing education for Registered Trainee Appraisers

|---|---|
| What are the Post-licensing requirements and who needs to take them? | If the Registered Trainee Appraiser does not take the 45 hour post-licensing education course (plus the 3 hour appraisal law course) in their first renewal they will be required to take the 45 hour post-licensing education course (plus the 3 hour appraisal law course) in their second renewal. This means that if a Registered Trainee Appraiser chooses to take the 30 hour continuing education course in their first renewal they will be required to take the 45 hour post-licensing education course (plus the 3 hour appraisal law course) in their second renewal |
| If I don't complete the post-licensing education before the end of the second renewal cycle, can I pay the fee and renew after I finish it? | No, Rule 61J1-4.009 F.A.C. states that failing to complete the required post-licensing education hours prior to the end of the second renewal cycle will result in the license becoming Null & Void. It cannot be renewed after that time. You will have to submit a new application and receive a new license to continue appraising. |
| What happens if I don't do my Post-licensing education? | Any trainee who fails to take post licensing education by their second renewal will become null & void. |

APPLICATIONS WITH BACKGROUND ISSUES

|---|--|
| I am a convicted felon. Can I get an appraiser license? | It is possible. You will be required to submit your application, a detailed written explanation of the criminal background, including official documentation (see FAQ question #3 below). Applications with background disclosures may be referred to the Board office, and if deemed necessary, presented to the Florida Real Estate Appraisal Board for review. |
| Do I have to disclose a misdemeanor arrest? | Yes. You must disclose all convictions, (felony or misdemeanor), regardless of whether you were convicted, found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere (no contest). This also applies to charges where there was a "withhold of adjudication". |
| The application says I must provide documentation regarding my arrest. What | Documents required depend on the question. |

| type of paperwork are you looking for? | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • #1 requires: Arrest/Police reports, final court dispositions, such as a certified copy of the Judgment and Sentence, letter from probation office regarding probation status, proof of restitution, court costs and fines paid, etc. • #2 requires: A certified copy of Judgment, Decree, or Satisfaction of Judgment • #3 requires: A certified copy of an Order or any other documentation denying your application for licensure, certification or registration. • #4 requires: Official documentation such as administrative complaint, final order and/or any other documentation for agency wherein license was disciplined. |
| I have tried to obtain the documentation you asked for, but it has been too long and those records have been destroyed. What do I need to do? | You are required to provide arrest reports and dispositions or final orders of each judgment. If police reports are not available, you MUST submit written explanation of each arrest. If records have been expunged, you MUST provide the certificate of the expunging or clemency from the clerk of courts. |
| I had a judgment filed against me; do I have to disclose it? | Yes. Question number 2 on the application refers to judgments. You will need to submit a detailed explanation, as well as supporting documentation with the application. (See FAQ question #3 above for detail). |
| I have had previous discipline by another Government agency or board. Do I have to disclose this? | Yes. Question number 3 on the application refers to prior disciplinary actions. You will need to submit, with the application a detailed explanation, as well as supporting documentation. (See FAQ question #3 above for detail). |
| Do I have any recourse if my application is denied? | If the Board denies an application, the applicant can request an informal hearing before the Board or a formal hearing with the Division of Administrative Hearings (DOAH). The Final Order will instruct you as to your options. If you choose an informal hearing and the Board chooses to affirm their original denial, then you can elect to pursue your appellate rights, or you can re-apply at a later date. |
| Can I submit my application before taking the course to make sure the Board will approve my background? | No. Proof of education must be submitted with the application. No action will be taken on an application until it is complete and the appropriate fee is paid. |
| Can I work as a trainee for a real estate brokerage or an owner developer? | No. Please refer to s. 475.611(1)(n) , s. 475.6221 , and s. 475.6222, F.S. |

COMPLAINTS

|---|---|
| How do I file a complaint against an appraiser? | Download the Uniform Complaint Form at www.myfloridalicense.com > Doing Business with US > Real Estate > Forms > Uniform Complaint form DBPR RE-2200 . Submit the form and all supporting documentation to the address on the form. |
| What do I need to file a complaint? | You will need to include the signed complaint form, as well as any |

| | |
|---|--|
| | documentation you feel will support your claims, such as: appraisal reports, any contract or correspondence between the involved parties, and any documentation provided to the appraiser regarding the subject property (surveys, deeds, etc.) |
| Have you received my complaint? | The DRE will send you a letter upon receipt of the complaint, and the complainant must allow time for analysis of the complaint. The complaint analyst will inform the complainant, by letter, if the complaint will be investigated. |
| What happens to my complaint when you receive it? | A complaint is received and forwarded to a complaint analyst. The analyst reads the complaint to determine if it is “legally sufficient”: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If there appears to be a violation that is supported by documentation, a case number is assigned and the case is forwarded to the Investigative Field Office for an investigation. • If the complaint does not have sufficient information to support the alleged violation, it is assigned a case number and a letter is sent to the complainant requesting additional information • If there does not appear to be a violation of Real Estate Appraisal license law or the DRE does not have jurisdiction over the matter, a letter is sent to the complainant explaining that no case will be opened. |
| Do I have to sign the complaint? | s. 455.225, F.S. requires a complaint to be signed. If you file a complaint with your name and contact information, but you fail to sign the complaint form, it will be returned requesting signature. |
| Can I file an anonymous complaint? | Yes, you can file an anonymous complaint; however, it is up to the Department’s discretion as to whether the complaint should be opened based on the information submitted; without your name and contact information, it may be difficult to make the case. Also, all complaints are confidential, so if the Department does decide to take action, you will not be able to obtain the status of the case if or until Probable Cause has been found. |
| How can I check the status of my complaint? | If you have received a letter from the Complaint Section that contains a case number you may contact the Customer Contact Center for assistance by calling 850.487.1395 or by sending an email to call_center@dbpr.state.fl.us . Your request will be forwarded to the Bureau of Enforcement for response. |
| At what point does a complaint become public information? | A complaint does not become public information until 10-days after probable cause has been found. |
| How can I get a copy of a complaint? | A copy of a complaint may be obtained only after a final order has been filed. Copies are then available by sending a request to the Department’s Agency Clerk’s Office. Telephone calls to the Customer Contact Center (850.487.1395) may be transferred to the Agency Clerk’s Office in Tallahassee. |
| Is there a fee for the copies of a complaint? | Yes, the Clerk’s Office will have to copy the information and call you once they know how much the fee comes too. You will have to send the fee before the Clerk will mail the copies. |
