

RENEWAL INFORMATION

This is the last renewal notification that you will receive before your license is set to null and void.

Involuntary Inactive Licensees: Expiring March 31, 2022
Real Estate Sales Associates, Brokers, Broker Associates
(SL, BK, BL)

Every day we work to improve the way we do business in order to serve you better. As part of those efforts, we notify you when your license is due for renewal. To renew your license, please access your online account at:

www.MyFloridaLicense.com > My Account

Upon renewal, a copy of your license will be sent to the email address associated with your online account.

Please be sure you keep your email up to date and renew online. DBPR online services offer a quick and easy way to print your license, renew your license, find license requirements, apply for a license, and update your license.

We're MOBILE!

Search for "DBPR Mobile" in the app store. Once you have installed the application select "My License" and enter the same login and password information that you used to create your online account to view a copy of your professional license.

We encourage you to renew online.

However, you can mail your renewal notice and fee to:
Department of Business and Professional Regulation
P.O. Box 6300
Tallahassee, Florida, 32314-6300

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Renewing Your Involuntary Inactive License:

Payments and Education

You are required to complete the 28 hour reactivation education course and pay the required renewal fee of $121 for Sales Associates or $133 for Broker/Broker Associates in order to renew.

- If you paid online for the last renewal and your license failed to renew - you cannot pay online this renewal period. You must submit this renewal payment by mail.
- All reactivation education courses and payments must be completed by March 31, 2022.

NOTE: If your renewal is postmarked after March 31, 2022 or received electronically after Midnight Eastern Standard Time (EST), March 31, 2022 your license will become null and void.

INVOLUNTARY INACTIVE STATUS

Renewing once expired more than one year:

To renew a real estate license that has been expired for more than twelve months you must complete a 28 hour reactivation education course and pay all fees that are due on your renewal application.

Once your license is renewed, to reactivate your license you must:

- Sales and Broker Associates contact your broker to register as their employee.
- Brokers must be properly registered as a Sole Proprietor, Partnership or Qualifying Broker of a licensed real estate company.

Visit www.MyFloridaLicense.com to create an account or access an existing account. There you will find license and renewal information, fees and their breakouts, license relationships, as well as the opportunity to update personal data, apply online for additional licenses, and renew your license.

ADDRESS, CRIMINAL SELF REPORTING, AND PAST DUE COMPLIANCE ORDERS:

- o State law requires you to keep your information current.
- o All professional licensees are required to self-report to the Department, within 30 days of being convicted, or found guilty of, or having plead nolo contendere (no contest) or guilty to a crime in any jurisdiction. To report, complete the criminal self-reporting document and mail it to the Department at the address provided on the form. To obtain a copy of the form, go to www.MyFloridaLicense.com.
- o If you have a compliance order with a past due payment your license will not be renewed until it has been made current.

Connect With DBPR

2601 Blair Stone Road
Tallahassee, FL 32399

Customer Contact Center: 850.487.1395

Website: www.myfloridalicense.com

Department of Business & Professional Regulation

Division of Real Estate

Katy McGinnis, Director

Chris Willenbring, Deputy Director