

Important and Helpful Information for Examination Candidates

We suggest you make the Bureau of Education and Testing webpage your home page while you are studying and preparing to take the licensure examination for the profession of your choice. This page contains useful and important examination information which will assist you in preparing to sit for a licensure examination.

Particularly useful are the Candidate Information Booklets (CIBs). The Candidate Information Booklets (CIBs) are designed to assist you in your attempt to become licensed and provide you useful information regarding the examination and administration. You can find the one for your chosen profession by visiting:

<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/dbpr/servop/testing/booklets.html>

Construction Contractors candidates should visit this exam resources web page, for important and useful examination information:

<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/dbpr/servop/testing/ConstructionExamInformation.html>

Electrical Contractors candidates should visit this web page to learn more about the examination and other useful information:

<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/dbpr/servop/testing/ElectricalExamInformation.html>